*Arkansas State University has the approval from the higher education agencies or via NC-SARA of the states listed in green/yellow to admit students to these programs. Unapproved programs are listed in red and denoted with an "X". As licensure requirements may change without notice, it is the responsibility of the student to confirm the requirements for licensure in his/her state as it applies to the participation in an out-of-state degree program. Programs denoted in Yellow on the above table indicate that Arkansas State University cannot confirm or has not yet confirmed if the program leads to licensure/certification in the respective State. When completing your admissions application there will be a link to State Department of Education or equivalent contact information for these States. Students will need to contact their respective State agency to confirm the requirements for licensure in his/her State as it applies to the participation in an out-of-state degree program. Please note that the MSE Educational Theory and Practice degree does not lead to licensure in Arkansas but may assist with preparation for the National Board Certification process.

Students from this state cannot be admitted to unapproved programs.

†Students pursuing a Graduate Certificate may not be admitted into certain certificate programs depending on approval

 Alabama and Georgia Students Please Read Below***

Disclosure on Transferability of Credits per Tennessee Higher Education Commission SECTION 1 Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 7, Part 1, is amended by adding the following language as new, appropriately designated section: § 49-7-1_.

Credits earned at Arkansas State University may not transfer to another educational institution. Credits earned at another educational institution may not be accepted by Arkansas State University. You should obtain confirmation that Arkansas State University will accept any credits you have earned at another educational institution before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer credits earned at Arkansas State University to determine if such Institutions will accept credits earned at Arkansas State University prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement. The ability to transfer credits from Arkansas State University to another educational institution may be very limited. Your credits may not transfer and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at Arkansas State University if you enroll in another educational institution.

You should never assume that credits will transfer to or from any educational institution. It is highly recommended and you are advised to make certain that you know the transfer of credit policy of Arkansas State University and of any other educational institutions you may in the future want to transfer the credits earned at Arkansas State University before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement.

Connecticut

The Bureau of Educator Standards and Certification cannot determine a candidate's eligibility for Connecticut certification until he/she submits a formal application form (ED 170) and supporting documents to the Connecticut State Department of Education's Bureau of Educator Standards and Certification office.

Please refer to forms ED 170 and ED 125 found here.

Connecticut does not pre-approve teacher preparation programs completed in other U.S. States or Territories.

Connecticut does not have reciprocity with any other state. However, Connecticut participates in the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement (NIA). Under this agreement, to waive specific coursework requirements, Connecticut may accept completion of a state-approved education preparation program at a regionally accredited college or university from another US state.

The interstate agreement does not exempt candidates from degree, testing, and/or experiential requirements applicable to the requested certification endorsement. Candidates who do not qualify for the Connecticut certification under the terms of the interstate agreement must meet all Connecticut's requirements for the endorsement requested, including coursework.

Connecticut does not participate in the interstate agreement for administrative endorsements.

Please refer to page 3 on the Guide on Obtaining Connecticut Educator Certification found here.
