Thinking Critically: students will be able to

- Interpret and analyze the relevance and quality of information
- Make judgments and draw conclusions based on credible evidence
- Integrate ideas into a coherent argument

Global Issues: students will be able to

- Demonstrate an understanding of the major patterns of interactions (such as, social, political, environmental, and economic) among nations, regions, and ethnic groups
- Demonstrate an understanding of the historical background and the current and future implications of the use of resources globally

Information Literacy: students will be able to

- Use appropriate ethical and legal methods to retrieve, generate, interpret, and distribute information