

January 29, 2018

A-State Multicultural Center Newsletter

Events In The MC

MC Ambassador Joycelynne Williams is beginning preparations for an MC hosted Book Club. If you are interested in joining, please complete this survey.

Volunteers are still needed for the Annual Soul Food Dinner. Please email, astateMC@astate.edu, for more details.

WE'RE HIRING!

The MC is in need of a Work Study applicable student worker for a front desk position. Please e-mail Rachel Hendrix, if you are interested.

Campus News

Alley Scholars Business Elevator Pitch Competition

The Alley Scholars Business Elevator Pitch Competition is a new event sponsored at the 2018 Alley Scholars Summit. It allows our aspiring collegiate entrepreneurs the opportunity to pitch creative or innovative ideas that provide value to society. Ideas can be new products as well as ones that solve a problem or improve an existing service. Winning ideas are those that are feasible, sustainable and bring positive impact to others. The Elevator Pitch Contest will be held during the 7th Annual Alley Scholars Summit at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Arkansas on March 3, 2018. Any undergraduate student is welcome to participate.

For More Information, please email

alleyscholars@yahoo.com

Black History Month

Tuesday, February 6, 2018

Sorting Out Race Exhibit Panel

5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

ASU Museum

Wednesday, February 7, 2018

Guest Speaker, Ayana Gregory

6:00 p.m.

Auditorium, Student Union

Friday, February 9, 2018

Annual Soul Food Dinner

6:00 p.m.

A-State Armory

Wrap - Up

The MC was very busy last week preparing for an eventful month. The MC hosted the Black History Month Kick-Off on Thursday, February 1, 2018. During lunch the MC provided cake and punch, with music and dancing. During the evening the MC hosted a panel discussing "Why do we still celebrate last history month?"

Black History Month

Arkansas State University has a full slate of activities throughout February to celebrate Black History Month. The theme of this year's celebration is "The Urgency of Now, Where Do We Go from Here?"

For more information, click here.

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

On Thursday, Feb.1st , the Multicultural Center hosted the Black History Month Kick-off. We had cake and punch and a lot of fun with NPHC and the African Student Association. We also informed the student body of the events that will be occurring during Black History Month.

During the evening the MC hosted a Panel with the topic of "Why do we still celebrate Black History Month?" Around 45 students, faculty and staff were in attendance. The panelists gave wonderful and insightful answers to poignant questions. It was a wonderful way to start off an exciting month of events.

MC OPPORTUNITIES

- Have suggestions for us? We'd love to hear them! Let us know!
- Want to suggest a Student or Faculty/Staff spotlight? Email us!
- Want to advertise an event with us? Please email Rachel with your information.