

F00511

Position Summary: The School of Nursing invites applications for the position of Faculty for the ACEN accredited Masters of Science in Nursing program, Adult Health Clinical Nurse Specialist option. Participation in teaching, student advising, professional service and scholarly activity is expected. The position is full-time (9 month), tenure track position at the rank of assistant professor. This position will begin Fall 2016.

Duties & Responsibilities:

The School of Nursing at Arkansas State University desires to fill the position of Faculty for the ACEN accredited Masters of Science in Nursing Program. This position is responsible for:

Teaching Faculty in Graduate options:

A. Teaching:

1. actively participates in development and evaluation of curriculum, course content, clinical experiences, and test construction, including assessment.
2. is responsible for didactic courses and/or clinical group size appropriate to area of clinical practice.
3. plans and supervises seminars specific to areas of expertise and research .
4. establishes effective coordinating relationships with co-workers and clinical agencies.
5. continues education for professional growth.

B. Scholarship:

1. conducts continuing education offerings.
2. participates in nursing research and other scholarly work, including but not limited to presentations at professional meetings, grant applications, book and textbook reviews, enrollment in university courses.
3. research experience with research agenda, including student supervision of graduate and post-graduate research projects.

C. Service:

1. participates in academic advising and guidance of students.
2. maintains office hours.
3. participates in the faculty organization and appropriate program, college and university activities.
4. serves on assigned program, college and university committees.
5. sponsors and promotes planned activities of students, program, college and university as requested.
6. contributes to the community through involvement in and/or consultation to health related organizations, board memberships, or professional presentations to the public.
7. participates in planning for the continued growth and progress of the MSN programs through faculty and student recruitment and retention efforts, including mentoring of faculty.
8. holds membership and participates in professional organizations that advance the profession of nursing.

D. Program Coordination:

1. responsible for coordinating the Geri/Psych CNS program.