

SARAH WILKERSON FREEMAN, Ph.D.
Curriculum Vitae
Selected Publications, Professional Papers, Public History Exhibitions
2002-2012

POSITIONS: Assistant Professor of History, Arkansas State University, 1996-2002; Associate Professor of History, Arkansas State University, 2002-2010; Professor of History, Arkansas State University, 2010-Present

PUBLICATIONS—Since 2002 (Books/ Articles/ Chapters/ Essays/ Editorial Work):

“Sarah Cowan ‘Daisy’ Denson (1863-1952): The Lost Matriarch of State Public Welfare Reform,” in North Carolina Women: Their Lives and Times, Vol. 1, editors Michele Gillespie and Sally McMillan (University of Georgia Press, forthcoming 2013).

Tennessee Women: Their Lives and Times, Vol. 2, editor (with co-editor Dr. Beverly Bond), and author of “Tennessee Women and the Transformation of Politics,” (University of Georgia Press, forthcoming 2013).

Tennessee Women: Their Lives and Times, Vol. 1, editor (with co-editor Dr. Beverly Bond) and author of Preface (ix-xv), and “Charl Ormond Williams: Feminist Politics and Education for Equality,” 164-191 (University of Georgia Press, 2009).

“Politics and Gender Before 1920,” and “Politics and Gender: 1920 and Beyond,” two long essays in The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, Vol. 13: Gender, eds. Nancy Bercaw and Ted Ownby (University of North Carolina Press, 2009).

“Fat Tuesday at Dixie’s,” Southern Cultures, February 2006 (University of North Carolina Press).

“Stealth in the Political Arsenal of Southern Women: A Retrospective for the Millennium,” in Southern Women at the Millennium: A Historical Perspective, Melissa Walker, Jeanette and Joe Dunn, eds. (University of Missouri Press, 2003).

“Pauline Van De Graaf Orr (1861-1955): Feminist Education in Mississippi,” in Mississippi Women: Their Histories, Their Lives, Vol. 1, Martha H. Swain, Elizabeth Anne Payne, and Marjorie Julian Spruill, eds. (University of Georgia Press, 2003).

“The ‘Second Battle’ for Woman Suffrage: Southern White Women, the Poll Tax, and V.O. Key’s Master Narrative of Southern Politics,” Journal of Southern History, May 2002.

“The Creation of a Subversive Feminist Dominion: Interracialist Social Workers and the Georgia New Deal,” The Journal of Women’s History, Winter 2002.

PAPERS, PRESENTATIONS, PUBLIC HISTORY EXHIBITIONS--Since 1999 (speaker, session participant, and organizer)

Roundtable organizer, chair, and speaker, “A New Movement in Southern Women’s History: The University of Georgia Press Series,” Southern Historical Association Meeting, Charlotte, NC, November 5, 2010

Invited speaker, Constitution Day, Arkansas State University, September 22, 2010

Invited speaker and chair, "Shelby County Women and Civil Rights," Shelby County Public Library, Memphis, TN, January 16, 2010

Invited speaker, 2008 Porter Fortune Symposium, University of Mississippi, March 19-20, 2008

Invited Speaker, "Ruin and Reclamation: Jack Robinson's New Orleans," Katrina Conference, University of Nottingham, UK, June 2007

Invited speaker, "Capturing Southern Bohemia: Jack Robinson's 1950s New Orleans Photographs," Tulane University, April 2006

Conference Organizer, session participant, "The Secret Harvest of Southern Women's History," First Annual Senator Hattie Caraway Day, Arkansas State University, October 24, 2005

Speaker and multi-media presentation, "Beyond Black and White: Jack Robinson's Southern Scenes," Southern Historical Association Meeting, Memphis, TN, November, 2004

Roundtable participant, "Fashioning New Paradigms in Publishing," Mid-America Conference, Memphis, TN, September, 2004

Speaker, session participant, "Love and Liberation: Southern Women-Loving-Women and the Power of the Heart," Organization of American Historians Annual Meeting, Memphis, TN, April 2003

Invited speaker, "In the Wake of the 1927 Flood: Its Impact on Delta Politics and Relief," Arts Council of Mississippi County and Arkansas State University, Blytheville, AR, November 9, 2002

Invited Panelist, Conference on Women's Issues, Arkansas State University, March 28, 2002

Speaker, session participant, "Pauline Orr and Feminist Education in Mississippi," Mid-America Conference, Stillwater, Oklahoma, October 2001

Invited speaker, "Pauline Orr and Feminist Education in Mississippi," Mississippi Historical Society, Oxford, Mississippi, March 2001

Invited presenter, "New Technologies and Southern Studies," Center for New Media in the Classroom seminar, Vanderbilt University, May 2000

Speaker, session participant, "The 'Strange Career' of the White Women's Anti-Poll Tax Movement in Alabama, 1933-1953," Southern Historical Association Meeting, November 1999

Speaker, session participant, "The Serpent . . . and the Dove": Southern Women/the Secret Weapon of the Women's Division of the Democratic Party," Eleventh Berkshire Conference on Women's History, June 1999