

ARKANSAS BROADCASTERS ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

In memory of Ted Rand

Presented by the

ARKANSAS BROADCASTERS ASSOCIATION

for study in the

SCHOOL OF MEDIA & JOURNALISM

Arkansas State University Jonesboro, Arkansas

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLYING

1. To be eligible for this scholarship, you must be a senior in an Arkansas high school, preparing to enter Arkansas State University in the fall, and dedicated to a career in broadcasting.
2. Complete the attached APPLICATION FOR SCHOLARSHIP form.
3. In a separate document, write a short statement explaining why you have chosen broadcasting as a career field.
4. In a separate document, list any experience you have had in radio or television. Include any part-time or full-time work in a radio or television station or any broadcast-related programs in which you may have participated (even if for no pay) while a student in high school.
5. The third page of the attached APPLICATION FOR SCHOLARSHIP form is to be completed by your principal or counselor. Ask him/her to complete the "APPLICATION FOR SCHOLARSHIP" form and the separate sheets you have prepared to brawlins@astate.edu.
6. Ask your principal or counselor to send a copy of your high school transcript with the application and other documentation to brawlins@astate.edu.

The scholarship winner will be determined by a Scholarship Committee at Arkansas State University. The committee will consider applicants' high school academic record, class rank, standardized test scores, extra-curricular and community activities, principal or counselor evaluation, and the career statement called for in #3 above. Finalists will be asked to submit an audition tape at a later date.

The ABA Ted Rand Memorial Scholarship is for full tuition for the fall semester at Arkansas State University and is renewable for the spring semester, contingent upon the recipient's continued study in the A-State School of Media & Journalism and satisfactory academic progress.
