I-9 GUIDELINES & INFORMATION

- Per Federal Law, all new employees must have a valid I-9 Form completed on the 1st day of employment.
- If the I-9 Form is late-- Do not backdate the form. Explain why the document is late on a separate sheet of paper. Sign and date it and attach it to the original I-9. Remind all involved that federal law requires this form to be completed by the hiring department no later than the third workday.
- All original documents must be provided to the employer for verification within 3 business days of employment starting.
- In conjunction with the I-9, some individuals, such as nonimmigrant students and exchange visitors, must also present additional documentation in order to prove their work authorization in the United States.
- Social Security Cards with “Valid for Work Only with INS Authorization” cannot be used to satisfy the I-9.
- White-out is not allowed on any I-9. This voids the I-9 and makes it invalid.
- A new I-9 is needed when:
  - A change in citizenship status is made (i.e., from H-1B to Permanent Resident).
  - An employee is rehired after a break in employment of longer than a year.

Hiring Department Responsibilities for Section 1:

You must:

- Review the information your employee provided in Section 1;
- Ensure that your employee provided information in all required fields, if they do not apply, please use ‘NA’;
- Ensure your employee signed and dated the form;
- Ensure the Preparer/Translator section has been completed, signed, and dated ONLY if your employee used a preparer/translator.

In addition:

- You should note whether your employees indicated in Section 1 that their employment authorization will expire.
Completing Section 2, Employer Review and Verification

The Hiring Department must complete and sign Section 2 of Form I-9 within three business days of the date of hire of their employee (the hire date means the first day of work for pay). For example, if your employee began work for pay on Monday, you must complete Section 2 by Thursday of that week. If the job lasts less than three days, you must complete Section 2 no later than the first day of work for pay.

Employee Responsibilities for Section 2

Employees must present unexpired original documentation that shows the employer their identity and employment authorization. Your employees choose which documentation to present.

Employees must present (the employees must only present their documentation; the hiring department is responsible for completing it):

- One selection from List A; or
- One selection from List B in combination with one selection from List C.

Note:

- List A contains documents that show both identity and employment authorization
- List B documents show identity only
- List C documents show employment authorization only

In certain circumstances, your employee may present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a List A, B, or C document. Receipts only temporarily satisfy the document presentation requirement for Section 2.

Hiring Department Responsibilities for Section 2

The Hiring Department or an authorized representative of the Hiring Department completes Section 2. Hiring Departments or their authorized representatives must physically examine the documentation presented and sign the form.

The Hiring Department or authorized representative must:

- Ensure that any document your employee presents is on the Lists of Acceptable Documents or is an acceptable receipt. All copies of documentation must be legible and clear.
Physically examine each document to determine if it reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to your employee presenting it. If you determine the document does not reasonably appear to be genuine and relate to your employee, you should allow your employee to present other documentation from the List of Acceptable Documents.

Enter your employee’s Last Name, First Name and Middle Initial (if provided) from Section 1.

Ensure that each document is listed in the appropriate lists, such as List A, List B or List C.

Enter the document title, issuing authority, number(s) and expiration date (if any) from the original document(s) your employee presented.

Enter the date your employee began or will begin work for pay.

Enter the name, signature and title of the person completing Section 2, as well as the date he or she completed Section 2.

Enter the Hiring Department’s business name and physical address (please do not use P.O.Box numbers). If your company has multiple locations, use the most appropriate address that identifies the location of the hiring department with respect to the employee and his or her Form I-9 completion (e.g., the address where the Form I-9 is completed).

Make a legible copy of the documentation presented and return the documentation back to your employee.

Entering Dates in Section 2

Section 2 includes two spaces that require dates. These spaces are for:

- Your employee’s first day of employment (i.e., “date of hire” which means the commencement of employment of an employee for wages or other remuneration).
- The date you examined the documentation your employee presented to show identity and employment authorization.

The Date the Employee Began Employment

The date your employee began employment may be a current, past or future date. You should enter:

- A current date

  If Section 2 is completed the same day your employee begins employment for wages or other remuneration

- A past date

  If Section 2 is completed after your employee began employment for wages or other remuneration. Enter the actual date your employee began employment for wages or other remuneration.

- A future date

  If Section 2 is completed after the employee accepts the job offer but before he or she will begin employment for wages or other remuneration, enter the date the employee expects to begin such employment. If the employee begins employment on a different date, cross out the expected start date and write in the correct start date. Date and initial the correction.
The Date the Employer Examined the Employee’s Documents

This date is the actual date you complete Section 2 by examining the documentation your employee presents and signing the certification.
