Graduate Academic Standing – Suspension
SUSPENSION
Any graduate student who receives a grade of "F" in any graduate-level course will be ineligible to register for further graduate work. A grade of "I" will be converted to "F" if it is not removed before the last day to withdraw during the next semester in which the student is enrolled at the university or within one calendar year if the student does not enroll.

READMISSION OF SUSPENDED STUDENTS
After one regular semester or full summer in suspended status, students may be readmitted on probation, but only upon recommendation of their adviser and department chair and with the approval of the dean of the Graduate School. Readmission to Graduate School does not imply readmission to a particular degree program. The student must reapply to the program.

Graduate Academic Standing – Academic Probation

Any graduate student whose cumulative GPA on all courses taken for graduate credit falls below 3.00 at the end of a semester will be placed on probation. Students may be removed from probation by raising their cumulative GPA to 3.00 or better at the end of a semester. Failure to make a grade of "B" or better in each course taken while on probation will result in suspension from further graduate work. A graduate student on probation may not hold an assistantship and is not eligible for graduation. If you make a “C” while on probation and in the middle of a semester you can still be put on suspension.

Graduate Good Academic Standing

- Students who are placed on Academic Probation will be placed back in Good Academic Standing at the end of the semester if their cumulative grade point average is 3.000 or higher.
- Suspended students may apply for readmission to the Graduate School and their graduate program after one semester of suspension.

Undergraduate Academic Standing

- Undergraduate Academic Standing policy can be found in the Undergraduate Bulletin: http://www.astate.edu/a/registrar/students/bulletins/index.dot

Final Grading Policy

- Final grades will be available on the student’s transcript within 2 weeks after the course ends. Once grades are available, an email will be sent to the student’s ASU email account with instructions on ordering a transcript.
- Assignments, quizzes, exams, and other graded work required of students shall not be due after the course end date. Students may not submit work for a grade after the course end date.

Incorrect/Grade Change

- Students who feel the grade received on a course is incorrect or does not match the grade shown in blackboard will need to contact the Course Instructor.
- If the instructor determines a grade is incorrect, a Grade Change Form will be completed and signed by the Instructor, Chair, and Dean of the department. Forms are sent to the Registrar’s Office for processing.
