

Request for Exemption from Restricted Hour Policy

Students who are not in good standing with the university are restricted to no more than twelve semester hours of enrollment. This does not include enrollment in College Choices: UC 1011 or Restart: UC 1001. If enrolled in one of these courses, a student may enroll in up to thirteen semester hours. Students may request an exception to the restricted hour policy based on one of the criteria listed below. Exceptions are not granted for lab enrollment or lack of semester hours. If course enrollment falls short of twelve semester hours, students may enroll in one or two credit elective hours. NOTE: The reduced course number restriction will remain in place during the registration period for the next term(s). It will be evaluated and adjusted once the academic standing has been calculated at the end of the current term.
