STAFF SENATE CONSTITUTION

Mission Statement

The mission of the Staff Senate is to represent Arkansas State University non-faculty employees and to serve in an advisory capacity to the Chancellor of ASU-Jonesboro with respect to all matters concerning staff.

The Staff Senate is intended to provide a forum for all employees with fringe benefits. The Staff Senate will endeavor to participate constructively in matters that benefit the University and the staff it represents.

Organizational Structure

The Staff Senate is representative of the following six (6) categories of staff on the ASU-Jonesboro campus:

I. Staff Senate representation is based on the six Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) categories for full-time employees, with categories EEO 10 (Executive Managerial/Administrative) and EEO 30 (Professional Non-Faculty) combined. The senator apportionment shall be one (1) senator for each 35 employees. No section shall have fewer than two (2) senators.

II. The specific number of senators sitting on any Staff Senate will be determined prior to each election by polling the Office of Human Resources by February 1. The number of senators will be determined by dividing each category number by 35. Any portion over a whole digit will result in another senator for that category.

ARTICLE 1 - NAME

This governance organization shall be known as the Staff Senate of Arkansas State University- Jonesboro.

ARTICLE 2 - OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Staff Senate is to represent the non-faculty employees of Arkansas State University- Jonesboro in an advisory capacity to the Chancellor of ASU-Jonesboro with respect to all matters pertaining to non-faculty employee relations and to provide a means of communication to disseminate information to non-faculty employees of the University.

ARTICLE 3 - AUTHORITY

Point 1 - Powers

The Staff Senate shall exercise general legislative powers for the staff.

Point 2 - Governance

This Constitution shall govern the Staff Senate and shall be modified with a two-third majority vote to support the purpose of the Staff Senate.
Point 3 - University Approval

Any change in the Constitution adopted by the Staff Senate shall be enacted with the approval of the Chancellor.

Point 4 - University-Wide Actions

University-wide actions determined and adopted by the Staff Senate shall be approved by the Chancellor prior to enactment, except in matters where the Chancellor has given sole jurisdiction to the Staff Senate.

ARTICLE 4 - MEMBERSHIP

Point 1 - Criteria

The membership of this organization shall be open to all non-faculty employees with fringe benefits up to the level of Vice Chancellor. The Chancellor and Vice Chancellor(s) shall not be eligible for membership.

Point 2 - Membership in Other Governance Organizations

University employees who are eligible to be represented by the Staff Senate may not be represented by other campus governance organizations. Employees who hold both a staff position and faculty rank are, according to the Faculty Handbook, section I.b.5, defined as members of the faculty and are therefore represented by Faculty Senate.

Point 3 - Activation of Membership

Employees are eligible to be represented or hold membership in the Staff Senate upon activation of their fringe benefits.

ARTICLE 5 - REPRESENTATION

Point 1 - Representative Classifications

Employees of the University are represented in six categories which are defined by the equal employment opportunity (EEO) job classifications and shall represent the benefitted employees.

Point 2 - Ratio of Representation

The ratio of representation shall be one (1) senator representative per every 35 benefitted employees within the six EEO categories, with no fewer than two representatives per category.

The categories are:

- Service/Maintenance
- Skilled Crafts
- Technical/Paraprofessional
- Secretarial/Clerical
Professional Non-Faculty
Executive Managerial/Administrative (This category is combined with Professional Non-Faculty)
HR Ex-Officio

Point 3 - The Human Resource Representative's duties:

- serve in an advisory capacity as a non-voting, ex-officio member
- verify staff employee numbers by EEO category according to Article 5, Point 2 - Representative Apportionment
- other duties as deemed necessary

STAFF SENATE BYLAWS

ARTICLE 1 - REPRESENTATIVE ELECTION AND ATTENDANCE

Point 1 - Term of Office

A "term year" is defined as May 1 through April 30. Representatives will be elected to serve a three-year term beginning May 1, and ending April 30. In order to establish a staggered term of office, the charter representatives within each category will serve staggered terms where approximately one-half of the representatives serve a two-year term and the remaining representative(s) in each category serve a three-year term. Representatives will serve their term in reclassification and/or promotion.

Point 2 - Election of Representatives

The election process will be coordinated by the Vice President and the election committee. Every year the Vice President will present the election calendar to the Staff Senate at the November meeting. This calendar will provide dates of the EEO list collection, the nomination process, and the election process; culminating with the notification of all new senators of their election by April 1. New senators will attend the April meeting as guests in order to introduce themselves to the Senate and assist in the transitional process.

Point 3 - Re-election of Representatives

Representatives may not hold two consecutive elected terms. Re-elections may take place one year after the expiration of an elected term.

Point 4 - Senate Vacancies

When a vacancy occurs on the Staff Senate for reason(s) other than the expiration of a term, the Vice President will appoint the top vote recipient from a ranked list of alternates within the EEO category from the most recent election. If no alternates are available, there will be a new election within the EEO category. Once the Staff Senate is notified of the vacancy and is aware that no alternates are available, the Vice President will send a notification to all members of the EEO Category to contact the Staff Senate if they are willing to serve. Those who respond will be part of an election within that category only, and the winner will fill the vacant seat. The other respondents will be placed on an alternate list for future vacancies. In either case, the temporary replacement member will be asked to serve until the expiration of the vacant term, and the position will be permanently filled in the next regular election. The appointed representative may stand for election at that time.
Point 5 - Attendance Abuse

If in a term year, a representative accumulates three absences, the Staff Senate will be notified of the absences. The Staff Senate may then determine if the absences are excused and may declare the position vacant. Vacancies will be filled according to Staff Senate Bylaws Article 1, Point 4 - Senate Vacancies. If absences are determined excused, the member may remain on the Staff Senate.

Appropriate action may be taken by the Executive Committee, with the advice and consent of the Senate, if attendance abuse is identified.

Point 6 - Assignment of Proxies

Senators forced to be absent from a Staff Senate meeting may assign their proxy to another staff member from the same EEO category. To encourage staff to be more involved in the Staff Senate, the proxy must be assigned to a non-Senator employee.

ARTICLE 2 – DUTIES OF SENATORS AND OFFICERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Point 1 – Senators

All senators are responsible for the following:

- attend all meetings; however, if an absence is necessary, the senator should identify and send a proxy to the meeting
- participate in Staff Senate and/or SGOC Committees

Those receiving the greatest number of votes for each position are declared the officers.

Point 4 - Officer Vacancy

Should any officer’s position, other than the President, become vacant during the term year, a senator will be elected by the Staff Senate to fill the vacant officer position for the remaining term year. (A temporary replacement from the appropriate EEO category will be appointed to fill any senator vacancy, according to Staff Senate Bylaws Article 1, Point 4 - Senate Vacancies.) 14FA-03

Date: February 11, 2014

Sponsor/Proposer: ASU Faculty Senate

Issue: Revised guidelines for the selection of Academic Chairs, Academic Deans, Academic Vice-Chancellors (Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs including Provost), and Chancellors

Rational: To clarify the processes for internal and academic searches

Existing ASU Faculty Handbook Language

II.f. Selection of Department Chairs and College Deans

When a department chair or dean position becomes vacant it will be filled either through an external search or an internal appointment. Determination of whether an external search will be conducted or an internal appointment will made will be determined by consultation between the dean and the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost in the case of a department chair vacancy or in the case of a dean vacancy consultation between the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost and the Chancellor.

External Search: When a department chair or college dean position becomes vacant, procedures similar to those set forth for faculty selection will be followed. A search committee will be formed (by the dean for a chair position; by the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost for a dean position). Care should be taken to ensure that the search committee is broadly representative of the department or college. The appropriate department or college committee will screen applicants. When screening has been completed, the committee should consult with the dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost for chair and dean positions to determine which candidates should be invited for interviews. Candidates will reflect racial, ethnic and gender diversity.

Faculty members should be given the opportunity to meet with candidates, evaluate their credentials, and express their opinions to the committee.

The search committee will make its recommendation to the appropriate administrator before the final selection is made. In most instances, a consensus will have emerged regarding the acceptable candidates.

The Chancellor has final responsibility for academic administrative appointments subject to approval by the President and Board of Trustees.

Internal Search: When an internal appointment is to be made, the Dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost as appropriate will conduct a modified search, consulting with the appropriate groups. Such a search may include:
1. Announcement of the vacancy and solicitation of interest in the position by faculty in the department or college.

2. Interviews of the faculty exhibiting interest in the position with the department or college faculty.

3. Interviews of the faculty in the department or college by the dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost.

4. Private interviews of the faculty exhibiting interest in the position by the dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost as appropriate.

When screening has been completed, the committee should consult with the dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost for chair and dean positions to determine which candidates should be invited for interviews. Candidates will reflect racial, ethnic and gender diversity. Efforts should be made to ensure that the candidate pool reflects racial, ethnic and gender diversity.

Faculty members should be given the opportunity to meet with candidates, evaluate their credentials, and express their opinions to the committee.

The search committee will make its recommendation to the appropriate administrator before the final selection is made. In most instances, a consensus will have emerged regarding the acceptable candidates.

Internal Search: When an internal appointment is to be made, the Dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost as appropriate will conduct a modified search, consulting with the appropriate groups. Such a search may include steps 1-4 noted below but must include step 5:

1. Announcement of the vacancy and solicitation of interest in the position by faculty in the department or college.

2. Interviews of the faculty exhibiting interest in the position with the department or college faculty.

3. Interviews of the faculty in the department or college by the dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost.

4. Private interviews of the faculty exhibiting interest in the position by the dean or Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost as appropriate.

5. The College Dean will solicit input on the applicant(s) from all faculty members in the department prior to making a recommendation to the Vice Chancellor and Provost. In the case of a Dean search, the Vice Chancellor and Provost will solicit input on the applicant(s) from faculty members in each department or program area within the unit prior to making a selection. In most instances, a consensus will have emerged regarding the acceptable candidate(s).

II.g. Selection of the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost

When the position of Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost is to be filled, the Chancellor will make the appointment after consultation with representatives from the faculty, academic administrators, academic support staff, and students. Candidates for the position will reflect racial, ethnic, and gender diversity.

II.g. Selection of the Vice Chancellor and Provost

When the position of the Vice Chancellor and Provost is to be filled a determination of whether an external search or an internal appointment will be made by the Chancellor following consultation with the representatives from the faculty including the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate, academic administrators, academic support staff, and students. The process for an external search will be similar to the Selection of Department Chairs and Deans as noted in Section II.f. When an internal appointment is conducted the Chancellor will seek input from the appropriate constituency groups (Deans Council, Chairs Council, Faculty Senate, Staff Senate, SGA, GSC, external groups, etc.) and consider their recommendations specific to the selection and appointment of the Vice Chancellor and Provost. Candidates for the position should reflect racial, ethnic, and gender diversity. The Chancellor will make the appointment.
When an external search is conducted procedures similar to those set forth for faculty selection will be followed. A search committee will be formed by the Chancellor. Care should be taken to ensure that the search committee is broadly representative of the colleges and the appropriate constituency groups. The search committee will screen applicants. When screening has been completed, the committee will consult with the Chancellor to determine which candidate(s) should be invited for interview(s). Efforts should be made to ensure that the candidate pool reflects racial, ethnic and gender diversity.

Faculty members and members of appropriate constituency groups should be given the opportunity to meet with candidate(s), evaluate their credentials, and express their opinions to the search committee.

The search committee will make its recommendation to the Chancellor. In most instances, a consensus will have emerged regarding the acceptable candidate(s).

The Chancellor has final responsibility for academic administrative appointments subject to approval by the President and Board of Trustees.
