England Trip Fact Sheet

Dates: May 15 - 28

Cost: $3916 double occupancy (dependant on the number of people going)
Add $980 for single room

Itinerary:

Sunday May 15\textsuperscript{th}
- Leave Memphis – overnight flight to London

Monday May 16\textsuperscript{th}
- Early check in to hotel
- Welcome group dinner at a local restaurant

Tuesday May 17\textsuperscript{th}
- Validate tube system pass
- Intro and historical context of British nursing including old operating theatre
- Afternoon visit to Guys and St. Thomas hospital and Florence Nightingale Museum

Wednesday May 18\textsuperscript{th}
- Morning walk tour tracing history of Britain’s development of public health policy
- Afternoon visit to a private hospital

Thursday May 19\textsuperscript{th}
- British Museum in the morning
- British Library in the afternoon

Friday – Sunday (May 20 to May 22)
- Free time
- You are encouraged to research where you might like to go for 3 days or further explore London.

Monday May 23\textsuperscript{rd}
- Morning visit to the Science Museum with emphasis on historical x-ray machines
- Afternoon visit to the Tower of London
Tuesday May 34th
- Morning visit to Wellcome Collection
- Afternoon visit to the Alexander Fleming Lab

Wednesday May 25th
- Coach excursion from London to Cambridge. Spend the day at Anglia Rusking University with their students discussing differences in health delivery systems.

Thursday May 26th
- Morning visit to a Primary Care facility in London
- Afternoon visit to the Hunterian Museum and the Royal College of Surgeons

Friday May 27th
- Motorcoach to Bath and Stonehenge

Saturday May 28th
- Coach to Heathrow airport
- Return flight to Memphis.

Travel Insurance: Yes (about $50)
Health Insurance: Yes (about $40)

Meals: Breakfast provided. Lunch and dinner are on your own (except for two group dinners.)

Initial Deposit: $500 by December 12
Remaining fee: Due by March 18
College credit: Carries 3 hours credit if desired. (See R. Winters or B. McKinney for details.)