Black History Month Kick-Off

Cake and punch will be served in open court, beginning at 11:00 a.m.

A panel will be held at 6:00 p.m. to discuss why we still celebrate Black History Month.

Campus News

In The Community

The MC is happy to collaborate with various community organizations and businesses.

If you know of an organization or business that would like to support or collaborate with the MC, have them reach out to us at astateMC@astate.edu.

WE'RE HIRING!

The MC is in need of a Work Study applicable student worker for a front desk position. Please e-mail Rachel Hendrix, if you are interested.

Wrap - Up

Last week the MC attended the Miss Black and gold Pageant. One of our own competed and took second place. We are so proud of Miss Rayna Todd for her excellent performance! A special congratulations to the winner of Miss Black and Gold Destini Lattimore. Miss Latimore did a wonderful self defense demonstration to help young women combat sexual assault. Congratulations ladies!

Student Spotlight

This Week's Student Spotlight is Niani Williams! Niani is an MC Ambassador, specializing in Women and Gender Studies. Niani a Biological-Sciences major with a Pre-Professional emphasis. She is originally from Memphis, Tennessee. Her future plans are to become a Pathologist and open a clinic to test and research STDs. She likes the MC because it is open and welcoming. It is a perfect place for studying.

What hobbies do you have?

I like watching HGTV, listening to vinyl records, and eating sweet potatoes.

What is a fun fact about you?

I like to skateboard.

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

On Thursday, January 25th, the MC held two interest meetings for its new Peer Educators program at noon and at 6. Peer Educators will be students trained to conduct workshops on various diversity topics. Those in attendance learned the requirements and goals of the program, and were informed about potential programs/initiatives they would be trained to facilitate as a Peer Educator. Applications are still being accepted, and anyone that would like more information can contact Dr. Allen in the center.
