

November 6, 2017

A-State Multicultural Center Newsletter

Events In The MC

Monday, November 6, 2017

MC Monday

Trivia and Prizes to celebrate Native American Heritage.

11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Multicultural Center, Student Union

Wednesday, November 8, 2017

Natural Hair Forum

A panel of natural hair experts will be answering questions,
there will be a product exchange and vendor booths.

6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.,
Centennial Hall, Student Union

Campus News

LICENSE2HOWL Scholarship

For Fall 2018

$5,000 a year, $2,500 per semester

(Five awards will be presented annually)

For more information, click here.

LGBTQIA Safe Zone Training

November 6, 2017 from 12:00 to
1:00 p.m.

November 7, 2017 from 3:30 to 4:30p.m.

For more information, click here.

In The Community

Internship Opportunity

American Railcar Industries,
Inc., is having open campus
interviews in Career Services on November 7th, 2017, for incoming Juniors and Seniors.

This is a paid internship ranging between $13-$17 an hour, and will last approximately 15 weeks.

Visit HireAstate to sign up.

Wrap - Up

Last week, there was one event in the MC, the Native American Heritage Kick-Off, held on November 1, 2017 on the first floor of the Student Union. Students were quizzed on Native American Heritage, and provided with sweet treats. The final meeting was held for in planning the Natural Hair Forum.

Student Spotlight

This week's Student Spotlight is Rayna Todd! Rayna is the Education Coordinator, MC Ambassador. Rayna is originally from Camden, Arkansas, and is an English Major here at A-State. Rayna is a part of the Pre-Law Club, BSA, and is an Honors Ambassador. Rayna was instrumental in planning the DACA forum held earlier this semester, and also the Natural Hair Forum that is coming up this week. Her career goals are to become a lawyer and work in Civil Rights.

Rayna is a wonderful addition to the MC. She is a hard worker, wildly intelligent, with abundant creativity. We are so lucky to have her as part of the team!

Q & A with Rayna

What are your goals for the MC?

To create programs and events taht increase the awareness of the A-State community on different groups and cultures.

What is a fun fact about you?

I was teh first baby born in my hometown in 1997. Perks of being born on January 1st!

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

The Native American Heritage Month Kick-Off event was held on November 1, 2017, on the first floor of the Student Union. MC Ambassador's quizzed students, and handed out cupcakes. Students answered questions about Native American Heritage, and regardless of their answers (right or wrong) were rewarded with cupcakes. Students left with new information and a sweet treat!

MC OPPORTUNITIES

- Have suggestions for us? We'd love to hear them! Let us know!
- Want to suggest a Student or Faculty/Staff spotlight? Email us!
- Want to advertise an event with us? Please email Rachel with your information.