If you are unable to bring your government ID to our office in person, you may present your ID to a notary public and mail this original document to our office with a copy of your unexpired valid government-issued photo ID. If choosing to complete the document with a notary public, the notary public must be an approved U.S. Notary Public. We are unable to accept documents that are completed with the use of a foreign equivalent of a notary public. In these instances, students may be able to visit a U.S. embassy or consulate that is close to the student's or study abroad location to see if a U.S. notary service is available.
