

Faculty Senate Meeting December 3, 2021, Reynolds 222

Attendees: Scott Anderson, Donna Caldwell, Jessica Camp, Hrishikesh Desai, Bert Greenwalt, Joanna Grymes, Shivan Haran, Matt Harmon, John Hershberger, Katie Hill, Gabriel Horowitz, Amy Hyman, Natalie Johnson-Leslie, Cheryl Knight, William Maynard, Suzanne Melescue, Amanda Mohler, Carlitta Moore, Tim Oliver, Robert Robinette, Day Day Robinson, William Rowe, Amany Saleh, Ed Salo, Richard Segall, Bill Stroud, Marcus Tribbett,

Proxy Attendees: Amany Saleh for Kris Biondolillo

Absentees: Sudeepa Bhattacharyya, Than Boves, Annette Hux, Pradeep Mishra, Nikesha Nesbitt, Jake Qualls, Ed Scudamore, Rollin Tusalem, LTC. Morgan Weatherly

Meeting Called to Order: Donna Caldwell established a quorum. The meeting was called to order at 3:17 pm by Donna Caldwell

Order of the Day: Motion to accept made by Shivan Haran, Natalie Leslie-Johnson seconded, motion carried.

Approval of Minutes motion made to approve November 19, 2021 minutes with corrections by Jessica Camp, John Hershberger seconded, motion carried.

Guest Speaker:

Perdita Bush- Title IX and Equity – Discussed the rights and responsibilities of faculty, staff and students. In addition, specific rights of pregnant and parenting was discussed along with institutional equity. Senators were encouraged to ask specific questions related to all presentation topics.

Old Business:

Committee Reports

Constitution and Bylaws: Still with legal. Question was raised if non-faculty are allowed in closed meetings – should have an answer in January. Likely by Fall 2022 the Faculty Association and Faculty Senate will be separate. Faculty Senate represents faculty and the Faculty Association is more of a social group.

New Business: Question was posed regarding Duo Mobile and what to do if one does not have their phone to sign on in the classroom. Donna Caldwell will ask Henry Torres to speak to the Senate. In the meantime, a Fob option was mentioned

Other Business:

Open Forum: N/A

Donna Caldwell adjourned the meeting at 4:06 pm.