

Trey Reely

Home Address

2 Cathy Dr.
Searcy, Ar 72143
(870) 476-4646
reelytrey@gmail.com

Work Address

Retired

Education:	1980-1984	Harding University, Searcy, Ar, BME. Choral and Instrumental. 3.99 GPA.
	1984-1985	Harding University, Searcy, Ar. Harding University in Florence, Italy. ME. GPA 4.0. Includes studies of Renaissance and Baroque music.
	1986-1996	Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, Ar. University of Central Arkansas, Conway, Ar. 30 hours of musical studies. 4.0 GPA. Includes study of flute, oboe, bassoon, clarinet, percussion, brass pedagogy, and composition.
	2006-2007	Harding University, Searcy, Ar. Reading Specialist Endorsement. 4.0 GPA.
Experience:	1985-1991	Paragould Junior High School, Paragould, Ar.
	1991-2008	Paragould High School
	2008-2019	Riverview High School, Searcy, Ar
	2020—present	Arkansas State University
	2020-21	Mentor for Wilbur Mills Co-Op

Activities: Active member of the Arkansas School Band and Orchestra Association serving as Region Chairman (1995-96) and President (2006-07). Former two-year state chairman of the American School Band Directors Association. Has organized and hosted all-region auditions and clinics, marching contests, and region festivals. Wrote three chapters for the ASBDA Curriculum Guide. Contributor to the book The Conductor's Companion. Over 275 articles published in music journals. Contributing editor to The Instrumentalist. Author of five books on band directing. Published composer of literature for young bands. Adjudicator and clinician in Arkansas, Louisiana, Tennessee, Illinois, Oklahoma, California, and Pennsylvania. Former Quiz Bowl sponsor. Conway Community Band member. President of the Arkansas Small Band Association (ASBA) (2013-2019). Executive Secretary of ASBA (current). 2018 Arkansas Bandmaster of the Year.

Band Honors: First division ratings in sight-reading 30 of 32 years. First division rating at Region Assessment 27 of 32 years. First division rating in 51 of 57 marching contests including Riverview's first ever marching contest in 2010. The Paragould Symphonic Band was the Arkansas Honor Band at the Four States Bandmasters Convention in 2000. Riverview received straight first division ratings for first time in school history in 2011 and its first Sweepstakes Award in 2012.

Personal: Director of Teen Week at Crowley's Ridge Youth Camp. Currently Upper Elementary Director at College Church of Christ. Ronda (wife) works for Harding University as a professor in the nursing department. Three married children: Ashton, Ryan, and Kelsey. Four grandchildren.

Additional Information: Hobbies include writing, reading, practicing euphonium, and jogging (very slowly). Former youth football, soccer, and basketball coach.