Old Business:

The new overtime rule and tracking will take effect on December 1, 2016.

New Business:

Our first visitor was Katey Provence regarding the on-campus Food Pantry. The Food Pantry was created in February 2015 by the Student Government Association in partnership with Volunteer A-State. The Food Pantry is available to students, faculty, and staff at Arkansas State University. It is no questions asked, they only need your ID card. Recipients can come once a week. Hours are Monday 11 a.m. – 3 p.m. and Thursday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. The Food Pantry and Angela Daniels are working on an online form for those in need to fill out their requests, then they would only need to provide their name and ID to quickly pick up their items at the Food Pantry. The amount of food they receive is to serve their entire family size for three days. The pantry is entirely ran by students serving these people. They created holiday bags which include all of the ingredients to create a holiday meal for those in need and their families, those were available to all. The pantry is located in the small tan building by the Student Activities Center building. They are also working on a clothes closet, coming next fall, for students who need career-ready clothing. Feel free to bring donations to the pantry. They are in need of hygiene products, school supplies, cleaning supplies, reusable bags, and plastic bags. You can also bring donations to the leadership center. The pantry also needs volunteers during finals. You can email pantry@astate.edu for any further questions or call Student Life at (870) 972-2055.

Brandy discussed the two shared governance proposals. We first voted on the Evaluation of the Chancellor proposal. Randy Martin motioned to approve the proposal with no comments. Timothy Cureton seconded, all approved. We then voted on the Sexual Discrimination Grievance Procedure proposal. Timothy Cureton motioned to approve the proposal with no comments. Randy Martin seconded, all approved.

Brandy also discussed the possibility of not having a December Staff Senate meeting. Jeff Gulley motioned to not have the December Staff Senate meeting, Randy Martin seconded, all approved.

Open discussion:

There was discussion on a food drive at the Staff Senate event picnic for this year.

Scott Wheat said he was going to update Staff Senate website photos once he receives the pictures.

Timothy Cureton was asked about the Time Clock app. He said that the app was not yet prepared, but you can access the time clock through the web on your smart phone. All questions regarding the Time Clock can be directed to itswebteam@astate.edu.
