Arkansas State University

Registered Student Organizations

2026-2027

Table of Contents

Academic Organizations 3
Cultural Organizations 17
Religious Organizations 22
Greek Life Organizations 28
Service Organizations 34
Special Interest Organizations 42
Music + Art Organizations 55
Recreational Organizations 61
University Department Organizations 63

Academic Organizations

A-State Agribusiness Club

Contact: Wade Jones / Advisor: Dr. Bert Greenwalt

Purpose: The purpose of the Agribusiness Club is to engage students in professional development, education about the business sector of agriculture, community/university service, fundraising responsibilities, and fellowship with one another. Our organization is a social and professional organization for all majors with an interest in agriculture production, marketing, or agriculture communications.

A-State Collegiate Cattleman's Association

Contact: Katie McClellend / Advisor: Hunter Burnett

Purpose: The purposes of this organization shall be: 1. To advance the economic, educational, political and social interests of the Arkansas cattle industry. 2. To support the policies and programs of the Arkansas Cattlemen's Association and to meet the needs of the local cattlemen through county programs and activities. 3. To promote, preserve, and protect the rights and businesses of individuals involved in the beef-producing industry. 4. To educate members and the public about current issues involved in the Arkansas cattle industry, specifically government affairs. 5. To promote the Arkansas cattle industry and opportunities available through the College of Agriculture to the Astate campus, in-state/out-of-state high schools and elementary schools, and the general public. 6. To assist members in developing professional relationships and contacts in the industry of Beef Production and other industries such as Agricultural Business, Agricultural Communications, Agricultural Education, Animal Science, Environmental Plant Science, GIS, Natural Resources, Plant Science, Veterinary Medicine, and Wildlife Conservation and Management. These activities will aid in furthering the members' education in agriculture and better preparing them for a career in this competitive industry.

A-State Cybersecurity Club

Contact: Binita Katuwal / Advisor: James McGinnis

Purpose: As the Cybersecurity club we host various Cybersecurity experts for seminars, enlist training aspects for the members and help the A-State community to be more aware of cybersecurity.

A-State FFA Alumni Association

Contact: Shaylee Smith / Advisor: Dr. Nina Crutchfield

Purpose: Within the FFA Alumni Association, we strive to share our passion for agriculture and a desire to lead the way for younger generations who thrive within the agricultural community. This organization offers recruitment skills, professional development, and event organization, all while working within the realms of agriculture.

A-State Model United Nations

Contact: Edward Jackson / Advisor: Dr. Cameron Wimpy

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Model United Nations Organization, composed of undergraduate and graduate students, has been active on campus for over 30 years. Members debate, compete, and represent our university as delegates of member-nations in various Model United Nations competitions throughout the year.

A-State Moot Court

Contact: John Thompson / Advisor: Hans Hacker

Purpose: The Moot Court Club provides students with hands-on experience in legal advocacy by simulating appellate court proceedings. Members develop skills in legal research, case analysis, brief writing, oral argument, public speaking, and critical thinking while preparing for and participating in moot court competitions.

A-State Speech and Debate

Contact: Kamryn Newman / Advisor: Abigail Mock

Purpose: A-State Debate and Forensics is a competitive collegiate debate team focused on improving argumentation, public speaking, and critical thinking.

Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

Contact: Ashley Ponce / Advisor: Shaquita Renelique

Purpose: The purpose of Alpha Lambda Delta at Arkansas State University is to recognize and encourage academic excellence among first-year students while promoting continued high standards of learning, scholarship, and character. The organization seeks to foster academic leadership, service, and professional development by providing members with opportunities to grow both personally and professionally. In addition, Alpha Lambda Delta supports the university's commitment to student retention, belonging, and overall student success through meaningful engagement and programming. Consistent with the national mission of Alpha Lambda Delta, the chapter also encourages members to participate in service-learning experiences and community engagement that cultivate leadership, civic responsibility, and a lifelong commitment to serving others.

American Advertising Federation, A-State Chapter

Contact: Nathan Scarbrough / Advisor: Leslie Parker

Purpose: The student chapter of the American Advertising Federation, a national association uniting professionals and students across media, agencies, and brands. All majors welcome!

American Chemical Society

Contact: Sable Crafton / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: The purpose of organization is to bring people together with the love of chemistry.

American Concrete Institution

Contact: Jacob Hall / Advisor: Zahid Hossain

Purpose: The purpose of this organization is to promote student interest and professional development in concrete materials, design, testing, and other relevant areas of civil engineering. The organization will provide opportunities for professional networking, hands-on work, and participation in ACI competitions and events.

American Society of Civil Engineers

Contact: Caiden Sisson / Advisor: Jason Stewart

Purpose: The A-State student chapter of ASCE promotes the civil engineering profession and strives to connect our members to their future careers through social events, professional engagement, competitions, community service projects, and networking opportunities.

American Society of Heating, Refrigerating, and Air-Conditioning

Contact: Noah Owens / Advisor: Dr. Kwangkook Jeong

Purpose: This organization is the student branch of ASHRAE. The goal of this club is to help engineering students get a job in the HVAC industry.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers

Contact: Kimberly Patterson / Advisor: Dr. Kwangkook Jeong

Purpose: Promote STEM education with an emphasis in mechanical engineering both on and off campus.

Arkansas State Pre-Law Club

Contact: Levi Seward / Advisor: Dr. Angelo Brown

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Pre-Law Club is where future attorneys, judges, policymakers, and advocates begin their journey. Whether you're certain law school is in your future or simply exploring the legal profession, our organization provides the connections, experiences, and resources needed to succeed. Through LSAT preparation, networking opportunities, guest speakers, law school visits, mock legal experiences, and professional development events, members gain firsthand insight into the legal field while building friendships with like-minded students. Our mission is simple: to prepare, inspire, and empower the next generation of legal professionals.

Arkansas State Pre-Professional Club

Contact: Walker Cannon / Advisor: Dr. Maureen Dolan

Purpose: The purpose of the Arkansas State Pre-Professional Club is to educate, support, and prepare students pursuing professional degrees in healthcare and related fields. The organization shall accomplish this purpose by: Hosting guest speakers from professional schools and healthcare professions; Providing information regarding professional school admissions and career preparation; Organizing community service and philanthropic activities; Promoting academic excellence, leadership, professionalism, and service among members.

Arkansas State Space Program

Contact: Josh Sutton / Advisor: Dr. Kwangkook Jeong

Purpose: The Arkansas State Space Program is dedicated to giving students the opportunity to explore an education in aerospace engineering in Arkansas. Our current goal is the design and development of a liquid propelled rocket engine.

Arkansas State University NAACP Unit 6881-B

Contact: Lonnie Ervin / Advisor: Dr. Carlitta Moore

Purpose: The A-State NAACP works to advance racial equity, civil rights, and social justice at Arkansas State University and in the surrounding community. The organization empowers students through advocacy, education, civic engagement, leadership development, and community service while promoting equality and opportunity for all.

Art Education Club

Contact: Alexis (Freddie) Ghering / Advisor: Susan Whiteland

Purpose: The purpose of the art education club is to promote art in education on every level.

ASU-TV

Contact: Julia McKee / Advisor: Dustin Sullivan

Purpose: ASU-TV is your cable and web-based media outlet serving as both a learning lab for students and a communication and entertainment platform for the entire ASU community. Our programming is available on Optimum Channel 18, and on campus on Channel 4. Our content is also available on-demand through YouTube and Facebook. If you would like to get involved email our faculty advisor Dustin Sullivan (dsullivan@astate.edu), send us a message @asutvjonesboro on Instagram.

Biotechnology Innovation Organization

Contact: Chiara Castegnaro / Advisor: Dr. Jianfeng Xu

Purpose: This club is designed to tech students about the forensic division of the biotechnology sector. The aim is to highlight how molecular tools can be used outside of traditional research labs and can be applied in criminal investigations and identity analysis. Students will use core biotech techniques such as gel electrophoresis, DNA fingerprinting, PCR amplification and micro pipetting. As well as exposing students to the breadth of biotechnology while making advanced scientific concepts approachable and exciting.

Chi Sigma Iota - Beta Rho

Contact: Rissa Taylor / Advisor: Dr. Patrice Parkinson

Purpose: CSI Beta Rho is a counseling honor society for graduate students entering the counseling profession. Our international mission is "to promote scholarship, research, professionalism, leadership and excellence in counseling, and to recognize high attainment in the pursuit of academic and clinical excellence in the profession of counseling". The Beta Rho chapter promotes mental health awareness through community engagement and fundraising for causes such as suicide prevention, men's mental health, and mental health awareness for older adults. We also support professional growth by providing opportunities to network with professionals, present at conferences, and develop skills through online and in-person training.

Creative Writing Club

Contact: Tanner Kenley / Advisor: Andrew Gadberry

Purpose: The CWC hosts writers and creatives from all genres, styles and backgrounds for monthly workshops and discussion roundtables

Engineering Graduate Student Club

Contact: Quazi Shadman Sazzad / Advisor: Zahid Hossain

Purpose: To represent engineering graduate students to faculty and administration, support their academic and professional growth, and organize events that build community across engineering and computer science programs.

Honors College Association

Contact: Katelin Kellar / Advisor: Madelyn Carson

Purpose: The Honors College Association (HCA) is the student organization which brings Honors students together for trips, social engagement, and community service events, as well as service-learning opportunities.

HOWL Transition Program

Contact: Terrus Flemister / Advisor: Torrene Tuberville

Purpose: The H.O.W.L. Program at A-State gives students with intellectual or developmental disabilities and/or autism a chance to be part of college life. Students get support with things like making friends, planning careers, learning independent living skills, and academics. The program helps students grow, reach their goals, and feel confident in a welcoming and inclusive environment.

Linking Outreach to Ongoing Practices

Contact: Macey Powell / Advisor: Dr. Tameka Bailey

Purpose: LOOP is a service organization that brings students together to crochet and knit handmade baby items for donation to the St. Bernards NICU while promoting community service, compassion, and professional growth in healthcare.

MathZone

Contact: Garay Gulmammadov / Advisor: Allison Allen

Purpose: To engage people in mathematics and make the subject easier for those who struggle with it.

National Society of Black Engineers

Contact: Colton Nicks / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: To increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community.

National Society of Collegiate Scholars

Contact: Kamalpreet Kaur / Advisor: Teresa Clark

Purpose: The National Society of Collegiate Scholars (NSCS) is a nationally recognized honor society that recognizes and supports high-achieving first- and second-year college students. Built on the pillars of Scholarship, Leadership, and Service, NSCS celebrates academic excellence while providing members with opportunities to grow as leaders, give back to their communities, and prepare for successful careers. At A-State, our chapter brings these pillars to life through community service projects, leadership opportunities, professional development workshops, and networking experiences. To be invited to join NSCS, students must have a 3.5 GPA and be classified as a first- or second-year student at the time of joining. Once inducted, membership is for life—students do not need to maintain those eligibility requirements and can continue participating in the chapter and taking advantage of NSCS opportunities throughout college and beyond.

Neil Griffin Student Investment Club

Contact: Keon Okoh / Advisor: Xiankui Hu

Purpose: Our mission is to provide Arkansas State University students with investment management education and help members develop practical investment skills.

Phi Alpha Theta

Contact: Julien Mieirs / Advisor: Erik Gilbert

Purpose: Phi Alpha Theta serves as the history honor society at Arkansas State University. Through it and history club (run by PAT), students can engage with other historians and celebrate excellent work in the field of history.

Philosophy Club

Contact: Kambree Jackson / Advisor: Mark Herman

Purpose: Informal chatting about philosophical topics.

Physical Therapy Student Organization

Contact: Zach Dunlap / Advisor: Rachel Wilkins

Purpose: The PTSA is for physical therapy, physical therapist assistant, and prospective PT/PTA students. This organization encourages philanthropic participation, team building activities, and promotion of the physical therapy profession.

Pre-Occupational Therapy Association

Contact: Juliann Stevens / Advisor: Todd Sanders

Purpose: The Pre-Occupational Therapy Association (POTA) is an organization for undergraduate students interested in pursuing a career in occupational therapy. The association provides opportunities for members to learn about the profession, explore OT practice areas, engage in service and leadership activities, connect with occupational therapy students and practitioners, and prepare for admission to occupational therapy programs. POTA supports students as they develop the academic, professional, and personal skills needed for success in the field of occupational therapy.

Pre-Dental Club

Contact: Kendall Sanchez / Advisor: Scott Mangan

Purpose: The Pre-Dental Club supports students interested in pursuing a career in dentistry by providing resources, guidance, and opportunities to prepare for dental school.

The organization offers dental school tours, DAT preparation resources, application and interview advice, volunteer opportunities, and networking with dental professionals and fellow pre-dental students.

Pre-Student Osteopathic Medical Association

Contact: Skylar Orr / Advisor: Dr. Lori Neuman Lee

Purpose: Pre-Soma Club aims educate pre-medical students about the principles and practices of osteopathic medicine. More importantly, we promote a learning environment and supportive community for students on their path to medical school.

Psychology Club / PSI CHI Club

Contact: Melissa Duff / Advisor: Karen Yanowitz

Purpose: The Psychology Club is open to anyone interested in psychology, regardless of major. Our goal is to explore and learn more about psychology through a variety of fun and engaging activities. These include academic activities, community service, and social events where members can connect and get to know each other.

Red Wolf Radio

Contact: David Carey / Advisor: Galen Perkins

Purpose: Red Wolf Radio is a student-run radio station. It serves as an organization dedicated to giving students access and practice to a radio experience which allows them to create projects that they could represent them in the future. Red Wolf Radio premieres a variety of music and any student-made radio shows, podcasts, and more.

School Psychology Student Association

Contact: Haley Hartness / Advisor: Kristina Sanders

Purpose: The School Psychology Student Association (SPSA) supports students pursuing careers in school psychology by promoting professional development, leadership, service, advocacy, and collaboration. The organization provides opportunities for networking, community engagement, and educational programming while fostering excellence in the field of school psychology and supporting the academic and professional growth of its members.

Science Graduate Student Association

Contact: Joshua Poland / Advisor: Dr. Nikesha Nesbitt

Purpose: We, the Sciences Graduate Student Association (SGSA) aim to form a close-knit network that can grow and learn together through shared and unique experiences. More specifically, the SGSA will serve as a welcoming presence for new science graduate students. SGSA members can help introduce new students to their lab and their peers in more relaxed environments, opening the doors for a seamless transition into graduate life

Sister2Sister

Contact: Kysia Montgomery / Advisor: Lorin Neuman-Lee

Purpose: Sister 2 Sister is a supportive, empowering community for African American women at A-State, focused on academic success, personal growth, and service. Since 2005, the program has grown from a small group to a thriving network of students and mentors who create space for authentic connection, leadership development, and meaningful involvement on campus. Through study halls, financial literacy workshops, service projects, and engagement events, S2S helps members build confidence, find their voice, and stay on track to graduate. It's a place where you can grow, be supported, and make a lasting impact—together

Society of Manufacturing Engineering

Contact: Caden Grimmett / Advisor: Dr. Rajesh Sharma

Purpose: Society of Manufacturing Engineers is motivated by making things work precisely, and consistently. To manufacture something, you need to design a process, monitor it, and adjust it as you go, and we're here to help you learn those skills. SME has opportunities for acquiring certifications in Engineering fields and is a great place to coordinate and find resources and input/exposure for projects. Society of Manufacturing Engineers on AState has competed in the Cast in Steel competition, handled projects for various prototyping and functional tests using 3D printing, laser-etching, woodworking, and even electrical controller components.

Sociology & Criminology Association

Contact: Jessica Schnurr / Advisor: LaVonda Evans

Purpose: The Sociology and Criminology Club at Arkansas State University fosters strong interpersonal relationships while promoting academic and professional interest in the fields of sociology and criminology. Through community service, guest speakers, discussion panels, and social events, we aim to engage students and create a more connected, informed, and sustainable world.

Student Association of Radiologic and Imaging Sciences

Contact: Kelcie Morris / Advisor: Kendall Youngman

Purpose: This organization consists of current radiography students interested in networking, continuing education, and community service outside of the MLRS classroom.

Student Association of Radiologic and Imaging Sciences- MRI

Contact: Regina Joplin / Advisor: Kendall Youngman

Purpose: This organization consists of current MRI students interested in networking, continuing education, and community service outside of the MIRS classroom.

Student Development & Recruitment Team

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Dr. Carlitta Moore

Purpose: The Student Development and Recruitment Team (SDRT) is dedicated to recruiting and welcoming prospective students to Arkansas State University while fostering leadership, personal growth, and campus involvement among current students. Through mentorship, outreach initiatives, and engaging programs such as INSPIRE, SDRT helps students build meaningful connections, access campus resources, and create a positive and inclusive university experience.

Student Occupational Therapy Association

Contact: Rylin McMullan / Advisor: Ashley Stroud

Purpose: To foster the personal and professional development of occupational therapy students and interested students who plan to pursue careers and education in occupational therapy.

The Cosmetology Lab Association

Contact: Kamaria Graham / Advisor: Gregory Hawkins

Purpose: Our goal is to create a space on campus that focuses on Black hair education, beauty, hairstyling, and cosmetology, because we noticed there isn‚Äôt currently an organization that specifically caters to us for that need. We want to provide hands-on learning, workshops, networking, and opportunities for students to grow their skills. We‚Äôre looking for an advisor who can help guide us, support our vision, and help us build the organization successfully.

The Hive: Psychology Online & Thrive

Contact: / Advisor: Dr. Lauren Belt

Purpose: The purpose of The Hive: Psychology Online & Thrive is to create a welcoming community that supports the academic, professional, and personal development of psychology students at Arkansas State University, with a particular emphasis on serving students completing their degrees online. The organization provides opportunities for: • Building meaningful connections among psychology students. • Exploring psychological science and contemporary issues. • Developing leadership and professional skills. • Learning about careers and graduate education in psychology. • Promoting student engagement within the Department of Psychology and the broader Arkansas State University community.

The Student Association of Clinical Laboratory Professionals

Contact: Madisyn Lindstrom / Advisor: Dr. Adurey Folsom

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to promote understanding between students, faculty, clinical affiliates, and the community; to advance the science of Clinical Laboratory Professionals; to promote knowledge of the laboratory sciences as a whole; and to educate students to the opportunities that can be obtained within the laboratory field.

Veritas Society

Contact: Raquel Vargas / Advisor: Mark Lewis

Purpose: The Veritas Society is an organization that is designed to provide information and knowledge regarding legal issues for all students that are interested in an legal career or simply interested in the law. The organization is based in the Neil Griffin College of Business and focuses on legal issues involving business, but students of all disciplines are welcomed. The Neil Griffin College of Business currently has five licensed attorneys as faculty and/or administrators; that in addition have had legal practiced experience.

Women In Science

Contact: Moriah Beyer / Advisor: Dr. Virginie Rolland

Purpose: The Women in Science Club is dedicated to inspiring, encouraging, and empowering women pursuing careers in STEM. Through this Registered Student Organization, members have the opportunity to make a positive impact in the Jonesboro community through meaningful volunteer service while connecting with accomplished women in STEM professions, including physicians, veterinarians, engineers, researchers, and other industry professionals. Members also have the opportunity to develop leadership skills by serving in leadership positions within the organization each academic year. Whether you are a pre-professional student, an engineering major, a science enthusiast, or simply passionate about STEM, the Women in Science Club provides a supportive community where members can grow academically, professionally, and personally.

Cultural Organizations

African Students Association

Contact: Amy Mwarira / Advisor: Taron Robinson

Purpose: To celebrate African culture, build community, and create opportunities for leadership and learning by creating a welcoming space for students interested in learning about African culture. Membership in ASA is not limited to only students. We welcome all interested in learning, supporting about celebrating Africa's cultural heritage.

Bangladeshi Student Organization

Contact: Md Reduan Aftab / Advisor: Zahid Hossain

Purpose: The purpose of the Bangladeshi Student Organization (BSO) at Arkansas State University is to foster friendship, understanding, and well-being among Bangladeshi students, American and foreign students, and the broader campus and Jonesboro community.

Black Student Association

Contact: Janarie Prince / Advisor: Ian Buchanan

Purpose: To promote university spirit, academic achievement, and cultural enrichment.

Brother II Brother

Contact: Keenan Whitfield / Advisor: Fredrick Webb

Purpose: Dedicated to create a brotherhood of accountability amongst its members, and to educate males on the importance of manhood.

Chinese Student Organization

Contact: Yijia Pan / Advisor: Luting Fan

Purpose: The purpose of our organization is not only to promote traditional Chinese culture, but also to provide a trustworthy, friendly and non-lonely student organization for Chinese students studying abroad alone. We welcome students from all countries to join our organization to experience Chinese culture and atmosphere. We only wish that all students will feel happy and at ease within the organization.

EVOLVE: The Student Organization

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Imani Udoumana

Purpose: Evolve is a student organization that uses fashion, creativity, and self-expression as a platform to empower students and showcase their unique talents. The organization provides opportunities for personal growth, leadership development, community engagement, and artistic expression while fostering an inclusive environment where members can build confidence, develop skills, and celebrate individuality.

Hermana y Hermano

Contact: Anthony Lopez / Advisor: Justin Castro

Purpose: Hermana Y Hermano is dedicated to building a strong and supportive community for Hispanic/Latinos at Arkansas State University! We started as a mentorship program and have grown into an organization that provides cultural awareness, leadership, and student success. All are welcome to connect, grow, and get involved! Mentorship: Supporting students academically and professionally, pairing mentors and mentees, and helping people adjust to college Culture & Community: celebrating Hispanic/Latino culture, creating a welcoming space, and building friendships Growth & Opportunity: workshops, networking, and leadership opportunities

Indian Student Organization

Contact: Rajesh Mannem / Advisor: Pradeep Mishra

Purpose: The Indian Student Organization celebrates and promotes Indian culture, traditions, and heritage across campus by fostering cultural awareness, inclusivity, and community through events and activities open to all students.

Japanese Student Organization

Contact: Yuna Nakagawa / Advisor: Hideya Koizumi

Purpose: The Japanese Student Organization promotes Japanese culture, language, and community engagement on campus through cultural events, educational activities, and support for Japanese and international students. The organization fosters cross‚Äëcultural understanding, provides leadership and learning opportunities, and builds an inclusive community for anyone interested in Japan.

Korean Student Association

Contact: Yujeong Choi / Advisor: Julia Y. J. Jeong

Purpose: An official student organization dedicated to helping Korean students adapt to campus life at Arkansas State University and fostering friendly connections among Korean students through various social activities and support programs.

Nepalese Student Association

Contact: Newtion Rai / Advisor: Sanjeev Acharya

Purpose: The Nepalese Student Association promotes Nepali culture, traditions, and community at Arkansas State University by connecting students, celebrating cultural events, supporting international and Nepali students, and fostering friendship and inclusion among the university community.

Pakistan Student Association

Contact: Danish Yaqub / Advisor: Erica Jennings

Purpose: The Pakistan Student Association (PSA) at Arkansas State University promotes Pakistani culture, community, and student engagement by bringing students together through cultural events, social activities, educational programs, and opportunities for cultural exchange. PSA aims to support Pakistani students while fostering diversity, inclusion, and cross-cultural understanding across the A-State community.

Sister2Sister

Contact: Kysia Montgomery / Advisor: Lorin Neuman-Lee

Purpose: Sister 2 Sister is a supportive, empowering community for African American women at A-State, focused on academic success, personal growth, and service. Since 2005, the program has grown from a small group to a thriving network of students and mentors who create space for authentic connection, leadership development, and meaningful involvement on campus. Through study halls, financial literacy workshops, service projects, and engagement events, S2S helps members build confidence, find their voice, and stay on track to graduate. It's a place where you can grow, be supported, and make a lasting impact—together

Scarlett Reign

Contact: Jali White / Advisor: Zhedrick Jackson

Purpose: The ASU Stomp N Shake Team aims to promote school pride, uplift cheer culture, and foster a strong, supportive team environment. They perform at campus events, games, and showcases, creating confident and dynamic leaders, encourages creative expression and unity while promoting school spirit, pride, and inclusivity. The goal is to uplift the community, empower their members, and expand the definition of being an Astate Red-Wolf.

Students Support Israel

Contact: Liya Gay / Advisor: Mandy Northcutt

Purpose: Students Supporting Israel (SSI) is a pro-Israel, international, student-led campus movement that supports the State of Israel. Our mission is to be a clear and confident pro-Israel voice on college campuses and to support students in grassroots pro-Israel advocacy.

The Caribbean Student Association

Contact: Tanelle Charlton / Advisor: Dr. H. Steve Leslie

Purpose: The purpose of the Caribbean Student Association is to celebrate and promote Caribbean culture, build a supportive community for Caribbean and non-Caribbean students, encourage cultural awareness and inclusion, provide opportunities for leadership and service, and strengthen the campus through educational, social, and community engagement programs.

The Cosmetology Lab Association

Contact: Kamaria Graham / Advisor: Gregory Hawkins

Purpose: Our goal is to create a space on campus that focuses on Black hair education, beauty, hairstyling, and cosmetology, because we noticed there isn‚Äôt currently an organization that specifically caters to us for that need. We want to provide hands-on learning, workshops, networking, and opportunities for students to grow their skills. We‚Äôre looking for an advisor who can help guide us, support our vision, and help us build the organization successfully.

Vietnamese Student Association

Contact: Dan Tran / Advisor: Kevin Berry

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to promote awareness, interests of Vietnamese culture and traditions to students and communities. Expand Vietnamese culture to those that are attending A-state as well as the local communities around A-state.

Religious Organizations

747- Central Baptist Church

Contact: Zane Massey / Advisor: Cross Bright

Purpose: 747 exists to reach college students with the Gospel of Jesus and equip them to be life-long disciple-makers in the local church.

A-State African Christian Fellowship (AACF)

Contact: Gbeminiyi John Oyewole / Advisor: Edmund Poku Adu

Purpose: To foster a Christ-centered community that promotes spiritual growth, Christian fellowship, cultural understanding, leadership, and service by supporting African, international, and all interested students through worship, prayer, Bible study, outreach, and community engagement.

Arise @ A-State

Contact: Anyia Oliver / Advisor: Ian Buchanan

Purpose: Arise @ A-State is an extension of Arise Nations Jonesboro. A multicultural ministry that seeks to provide Godly wisdom, peace and love to a spiritually dehydrated culture. We do so through activities, social gathering and study sessions.

Baptist Collegiate Ministry

Contact: Kyleigh Herring / Advisor: Madison Ferguson

Purpose: At AStateBCM, we are dedicated to serving students and helping them grow in their faith. Our ministry provides a variety of opportunities for students to connect with one another and with God, including weekly Bible studies, worship services, and mission trips. We believe that college is a critical time for spiritual growth, and we are committed to walking alongside students on their journey.

Campus Outreach

Contact: Michael Mavera / Advisor: Chase Presson

Purpose: Glorifying God by building laborers on the college campus for the Lost World. Today's students are tomorrow's leaders. We focus on reaching and developing young, emerging leaders on the campus as they prepare to launch into the world. Through a life-on-life approach to mentoring and training combined with catalytic growth opportunities throughout the year, we offer a robust leadership development experience for university students preparing for life.

Chi Alpha Campus Ministry

Contact: Michael Bowman / Advisor: Nick Schroeder

Purpose: Chi Alpha is a discipleship movement among college students. We exist to help students mature in their relationship with God and build community on campus.

Delight Ministries

Contact: Ariana Olguin / Advisor: Haley Cummings

Purpose: Delight seeks to establish a college women's community that grows together, serves together, learns together, and does life together while chasing the heart of God. Delight is intentional about learning from one another through stories and experiences while potentially discovering or continuing to grow in relationship with christ. Delight exists to be a place where any Arkansas State collegiate women can come and grow in relationship with others, ask difficult questions, and find a strong community of Christians and non- Christians alike. Delight provides an opportunity for the women of Arkansas State to explore their faith in a nonjudgmental and open environment. In addition, Delight will provide a variety of service opportunities each semester in order to help and engage the A-State campus and the local community. Delight hopes to equip the women of A-State to give back through these service and fundraising activities.

First Baptist Church College Ministry

Contact: Addy Ellenburg / Advisor: Ric White

Purpose: To help students connect to God through the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and through that relationship, learn to love God, love others, and serve the world.

Journey College

Contact: Reese Mccallum / Advisor: Danny Vivar

Purpose: To develop and release authentic followers of Christ for the glory of God and the good of Jonesboro and beyond.

Lutheran Student Fellowship

Contact: Lucas Timmermann / Advisor: Dr. Tiffany Sterling

Purpose: Lutheran Student Fellowship serves to unify Lutheran students and faculty attending the various local churches that adhere to the traditional, historic Lutheran Christianity by providing opportunities for Lutheran Bible study and Worship, as well as fellowship and education.

Missionary Baptist Student Fellowship

Contact: Lucas Walling / Advisor: Brad Parker

Purpose: The purpose of the MBSF is to come alongside students during their college years. We strive to connect and engage with students by providing a safe space for spiritual growth, through prayer, Bible study, and worship.

Muslim Student Association

Contact: Salma Abdel-Karim / Advisor: Mohammad Abrar Alam

Purpose: To support Muslim students throughout their time at A-State, provide Muslim students with a sense of community and belonging, and educate the A-State community about Islam.

Nettleton Baptist College

Contact: Kaylin Wood / Advisor: Nick Campbell

Purpose: We exist to see God glorified through college-age students developing lifelong commitments to make Jesus known. We desire to develop disciple-making disciples that glorify Christ through commitment, obedience, service, and training. We teach our students to love God, the church, their community and the nations. We strive for our students post grad to have confidence in God and the Joy to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

New Life

Contact: Landon Rogers / Advisor: Hannah Rogers

Purpose: The purpose of New Life is to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ on campus, to disciple students in Christian faith and practice, to build a supportive community rooted in Scripture and prayer, and to equip student leaders for Christian service on and off campus.

Pakistan Social Association

Contact: Danish Yaqub / Advisor: Erica Jennings

Purpose: The Pakistan Social Association (PSA) at Arkansas State University is established to represent and support Pakistani students while promoting cultural awareness and inclusivity within the university community. The Association aims to celebrate Pakistani culture, traditions, and values, encourage academic excellence and professional development, and foster unity and leadership among its members. PSA welcomes students of all nationalities and backgrounds and encourages their active participation in promoting cultural exchange, collaboration, and the continuous improvement of the organization. Through cultural, social, and educational initiatives, the Association seeks to strengthen intercultural understanding and contribute positively to the diverse environment of Arkansas State University.

St. John Newman University Parish Catholic Campus Ministry

Contact: Isabelle Todd / Advisor: Mary-Alice Gabe

Purpose: Catholic Campus Ministry at Arkansas State University is dedicated to helping build intentional discipleship and community through faith, service, and love. 2800 E Johnson Ave, Jonesboro, AR Men's and Women's Bible Study Tuesday at 7 PM Wednesday Night Live at 7 PM Mass on Sunday 11 AM & 5 PM Free Student Meal Sunday at 6 PM.

Student Support Israel

Contact: Liya Gay / Advisor: Mandy Northcutt

Purpose: Students Supporting Israel (SSI) is a pro-Israel international campus movement that supports the State of Israel. Our mission is to be a clear and confident pro-Israel voice on college campuses and to support students in grassroots pro-Israel advocacy.

United Voices Gospel Choir

Contact: Brianna Harris / Advisor: Dr. Marques J. Ruff

Purpose: To create a "Free to Worship" environment for college students and to spread the gospel among Arkansas State University and the surrounding communities.

Walnut Street College Ministry

Director: Shaylee Smith / Advisor: Kelsie Clark

Purpose: This college ministry within the church of Walnut Street Baptist exists to help student to explore their faith and discover who Jesus Christ is and what he has done for them. Our goal is to be a community of believers coming together to grow in faith, find family, and realize our purpose.

Wesley Foundation

Director: Chloe Peterson / Advisor: Dennis Ellzey

Purpose: Provide an inclusive Christian community for A-State students while sharing God's love.

Wolflife Campus Ministry

Contact: Tristan Bates / Advisor: Lane Luttrell

Purpose: WolfLife Campus Ministry is on campus (2304 Shelton St. across from The Quads) and is a Christian Ministry with the goal of growing closer to God as we grow closer to each other as students at A-State. Mission: Love like Christ. Live like Christ. Lead like Christ. Vision: To be like Christ inside & out, shining His light on campus, and making disciples of Him across the world.

Young Life

Contact: Grace Winter / Advisor: Ben Hopper

Purpose: Young Life College seeks to create a space for students centered around community, adventure & significance as we explore who Christ is & who He has made us to be in big & small group settings as well as through opportunities to serve and engage with the broader Jonesboro community at large.

Greek Life Organizations

Alpha Gamma Delta

Contact: Kayla Zarp / Advisor: Kelsy Markum

Purpose: Alpha Gamma Delta at Arkansas State empowers women to lead meaningful lives through scholarship, leadership, service, and sisterhood. Our chapter fosters personal growth, academic success, and lifelong friendships, while engaging in community service. Our philanthropic efforts focus on fighting hunger, and we strive to uplift both our members and the broader community through lasting impact.

Alpha Gamma Rho

Contact: Seth Couch / Advisor: Johnathan Richwine

Purpose: A Greek organization to better young men in their college journey.

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Contact: Taylor Cole / Advisor: Evette Allen Moore

Purpose: Alpha Kappa Alpha is an organization rooted in scholarship, service, and sisterhood founded on January 15th, 1908. With the motto, ‚ÄúBy Culture and By Merit‚Äù, we are dedicated to making a change in our community and impacting lives globally.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Contact: Tylin Bennett / Advisor: Lisa Frazier

Purpose: Alpha Omicron Pi, Sigma Omicron Chapter at Arkansas State University, is a women's fraternity dedicated to fostering lifelong friendship, leadership, academic excellence, service, and personal growth. Through philanthropic efforts supporting the Arthritis Foundation, campus involvement, leadership development, and sisterhood, the chapter empowers members to make a positive impact on Arkansas State University and the surrounding community while upholding the values of character, dignity, scholarship, and college loyalty.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated

Contact: Matt McMullen / Advisor: Zhedrick Jackson

Purpose: The purpose of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. is to develop leaders, promote brotherhood and academic excellence, and provide service and advocacy for communities. Founded on December 4, 1906, at Cornell University, Alpha Phi Alpha is committed to uplifting humanity, advancing social progress, and championing the dignity and worth of every individual.

Alpha Sigma Phi

Contact: Cameron Cupples / Advisor: Will Teeter

Purpose: We are a group of hardworking, outgoing, sociable men who want to get more out of their college experience while building a strong culture of brotherhood and leadership at AState.

Alpha Tau Omega

Contact: Jaywon Sloan / Advisor: Blake Bradley

Purpose: Alpha Tau Omega has been helping college men develop their ability to be effective leaders for a lifetime since 1865.

Alpha Zeta Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Contact: Eric Flemister / Advisor: Booker Mays

Purpose: The Alpha Zeta Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. promotes leadership, scholarship, brotherhood, and service through programs that support academic excellence, community engagement, mentorship, and social action. Guided by the fraternity‚Äôs Four Cardinal Principles of Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance, and Uplift, the chapter is committed to developing leaders and making a positive impact on the Arkansas State University campus and surrounding community.

Chi Omega

Contact: Emma Briscoe / Advisor: Rebekah Craft

Purpose: Chi Omega at Arkansas State University is a women's fraternity dedicated to fostering personal integrity, academic excellence, community service, and lifelong friendship. Our purpose is to promote a strong sisterhood grounded in our six core values,Äîfriendship, high standards of personnel, scholarship, campus activities, career development, and community service,Äîwhile empowering members to grow into confident, well-rounded leaders.

Delta Zeta Sorority

Contact: Hailey Glueck / Advisor: Jennifer Wharton

Purpose: The purpose of this sorority shall be to unite its members in the bonds of sincere and lasting friendship, to stimulate one another in the pursuit of knowledge, to promote the moral and social culture of its members, and to develop plans for guidance and unity in action; objects worthy of the highest aim and purpose of associated effort. The purpose of this sorority shall be advanced through the National Convention, the National Council, and the college and alumnae chapters.

Iota Phi Theta Fraternity Inc.

Contact: Jeffrey Burnette Jr. / Advisor: Gregory Hawkins

Purpose: Iota Phi Theta,Äôs purpose is to Develop and perpetuate Scholarship, Leadership, Citizenship, fidelity, and brotherhood amongst men.

Hermandad De Sigma Iota Alpha, Inc.

Contact: Nayumi Rodriguez / Advisor: Jacqueline Sosa

Purpose: Hermandad de Sigma Iota Alpha Incorporada organization purpose is to constantly strive towards the expansion of awareness of the Latino culture to our members and the community at large. To promote sisterhood and leadership amongst ourselves which is the basis of our precious and rare foundation. To stand for accomplishments of excellence and education among women.

Kappa Xi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Contact: Alexandria Larry / Advisor: Toccara Carter

Purpose: Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. comprises three important values, Sisterhood, Service and Scholarship! Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is an organization of college educated women committed to constructive development of its members and to public service with a primary focus on the Black community. Our sorority was founded on January 13, 1913 on the campus of Howard University by 22 illustrious, collegiate women. The Kappa Xi chapter was chartered in 1973 on this campus by 8 innovative women!

Kappa Alpha Order

Contact: Jack Hood / Advisor: Wes Watts

Purpose: Kappa Alpha Order is a Moral Compass for the Modern Gentleman and provides a lifetime experience to its members. As an Order, our chapters bring together men who already possess our shared values: Reverence, Gentility, Knowledge, Leadership, Brotherhood, and Excellence. With a rich history and amazing experiences, KA helps keep your compass true, aiming you toward a successful future

Kappa Sigma

Contact: Stone Murdock / Advisor: Thomas Ragland

Purpose: Kappa Sigma's purpose is to support the young men who join. It supports these young men in many aspects of life from academics, social connections, and to providing service to the local community. Within this fraternity, opportunities arise to allow men to grow into leaders and experience a brotherhood one can call on for life.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Contact: Caden Kristofik / Advisor: Gary Goodrich

Purpose: Fraternity organization on campus whose morals and core values are drawn from the Christian faith.

Omicron Tau Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated

Contact: Aleyah Golden / Advisor: Dr. Ashley Williams - Whitley

Purpose: The mission of the Omicron Tau Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated is to enhance the quality of life for women and their families in the U.S. and globally through community service, civil, and social action. Our goal is to achieve greater progress in the areas of education, health awareness, and leadership development. As expressed by our slogan is, "Greater Service, Greater Progress".

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Ralo Brown

Purpose: The Lambda Eta Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. is dedicated to promoting the ideals of Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service through academic excellence, leadership development, community service, and campus engagement. The chapter strives to positively impact the Arkansas State University community while developing men committed to service and the betterment of their communities.

Phi Delta Theta

Contact: Harrison Herget / Advisor: Marvin Day

Purpose: The purpose of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity is to cultivate responsible, ethical leaders by fostering lifelong friendships, promoting academic excellence, and encouraging high moral standards among its members. Founded in 1848, Phi Delta Theta is committed to the principles of friendship, sound learning, and rectitude, aiming to develop men of character who positively impact their campuses, communities, and careers.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Contact: Doss McDaniel/ Advisor: Chandler Jones

Purpose: Pi Kappa Alpha is an International Greek Letter Social Fraternity. Our purpose is to serve our community, set our members up for success for the future, and create lifelong friendships amongst our members.

Sigma Chi

Contact: Caleb Ramsey / Advisor: Scott Almond

Purpose: Sigma Chi is a fraternity based off of its values, dedicated to developing leaders, fostering life-long friendships, promoting academic excellence, and serving the campus and surrounding communities. Through brotherhood, philanthropy, leadership development, and social engagement, the chapter provides its members with opportunities for personal growth while upholding the ideals of friendship, justice, and learning.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Incorporated - Iota Nu Chapter

Contact: Carrie Thompson / Advisor: Amber Neal

Purpose: Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated promotes scholarship, service, sisterhood, and finer womanhood through academic excellence, community engagement, leadership, and lifelong bonds among women.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Contact: Savannah Neldon / Advisor: Jennifer Baker

Purpose: Zeta Tau Alpha's purpose is to intensify friendship, foster a spirit of love, and mould sentiments and opinions that build up a "purer and nobler womanhood in the world."

Service Organizations

A-State Association of Black Social Workers / Social Work Organization

Contact: Abigail Bolton / Advisor: Fredrick Webb

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Association of Black Social Workers/Student Social Work Organization (AABSW/SWO) exists to support the academic, professional, and leadership development of social work students while promoting the values of the social work profession. The organization provides opportunities for community service, advocacy, networking, mentorship, professional development, and cultural awareness. Through educational programs, volunteer initiatives, and collaboration with campus and community partners, AABSW/SWO prepares students for ethical and culturally responsive social work practice while fostering a commitment to social justice, service, and the well-being of diverse individuals, families, groups, and communities.

A-State Book Club

Contact: Mia Huch / Advisor: Gwennette Confer

Purpose: Our book club exists to bring people together through the shared experience of reading. We aim to create a welcoming space where members can discover new perspectives, engage in thoughtful discussion, and connect with one another through meaningful stories and ideas. By reading a variety of books and sharing our experiences, we hope to encourage curiosity, conversation, and a lifelong appreciation for literature.

A-State FFA Alumni Association

Contact: Shaylee Smith / Advisor: Dr. Nina Crutchfield

Purpose: Within the FFA Alumni Association, we strive to share our passion for agriculture and a desire to lead the way for younger generations who thrive within the agricultural community. This organization offers recruitment skills, professional development, and event organization, all while working within the realms of agriculture.

A-State Photography Club

Contact: Rebecca Worthington / Advisor: Rachel Boillot

Purpose: The A-State Photography Club is a student organization for photographers of all experience levels and students of all majors to connect, create, and grow their skills. The club provides opportunities to share work, learn photography techniques, participate in photo walks and creative projects, and build a welcoming community centered around photography and the visual arts.

A-State Student Philanthropy Council

Contact: Grace Winter / Advisor: Tristan Dowler

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Student Philanthropy Council (SPC) is a student-led organization dedicated to fostering a culture of pride, tradition, and generosity across campus. Guided by its mission to instill a strong sense of spirit and giving, SPC engages students in philanthropy by raising awareness about the impact of charitable support and encouraging active participation in advancing A-State. Through programming, events, and outreach, SPC helps students understand the importance of giving back and building a lasting legacy for future Red Wolves.

Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

Contact: Ashley Ponce / Advisor: Shaquita Renelique

Purpose: The purpose of Alpha Lambda Delta at Arkansas State University is to recognize and encourage academic excellence among first-year students while promoting continued high standards of learning, scholarship, and character. The organization seeks to foster academic leadership, service, and professional development by providing members with opportunities to grow both personally and professionally. In addition, Alpha Lambda Delta supports the university's commitment to student retention, belonging, and overall student success through meaningful engagement and programming. Consistent with the national mission of Alpha Lambda Delta, the chapter also encourages members to participate in service-learning experiences and community engagement that cultivate leadership, civic responsibility, and a lifelong commitment to serving others.

American Chemical Society

Contact: Sable Crafton / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: The purpose of organization is to bring people together with the love of chemistry.

Arkansas State Young Democrats

Contact: Isabella Stanton / Advisor: Hans Hacker

Purpose: The Young Democrats is a student organization dedicated to promoting civic engagement, educating students about public policy and the Democratic Party, and developing future leaders. Through voter registration drives, community service, candidate events, volunteer opportunities, and discussions on current issues, members gain hands-on experience in politics while working to strengthen democratic participation on campus and in the community.

A-State Collegiate Cattlemen's Association

Contact: Katie McClelland / Advisor: Hunter Burnett

Purpose: The purposes of this organization shall be: 1. To advance the economic, educational, political and social interests of the Arkansas cattle industry. 2. To support the policies and programs of the Arkansas Cattlemen's Association and to meet the needs of the local cattlemen through county programs and activities. 3. To promote, preserve, and protect the rights and businesses of individuals involved in the beef-producing industry. 4. To educate members and the public about current issues involved in the Arkansas cattle industry, specifically government affairs. 5. To promote the Arkansas cattle industry and opportunities available through the College of Agriculture to the Astate campus, in-state/out-of-state high schools and elementary schools, and the general public. 6. To assist members in developing professional relationships and contacts in the industry of Beef Production and other industries such as Agricultural Business, Agricultural Communications, Agricultural Education, Animal Science, Environmental Plant Science, GIS, Natural Resources, Plant Science, Veterinary Medicine, and Wildlife Conservation and Management. These activities will aid in furthering the members' education in agriculture and better preparing them for a career in this competitive industry.

Black Student Association

Contact: Janarie Prince / Advisor: Ian Buchanan

Purpose: To promote university spirit, academic achievement, and cultural enrichment.

Brother II Brother

Contact: Keenan Whitfield / Advisor: Fredrick Webb

Purpose: Dedicated to create a brotherhood of accountability amongst its members, and to educate males on the importance of manhood.

Environmental Club

Contact: Haitham Alhajji / Advisor: Jason Post

Purpose: The Environmental Club promotes awareness of environmentally friendly behaviors, actions, and community engagement. The organization works towards cleaning the environment with community and campus cleanups. The focus is on community impact towards a better environment and environmentally friendly thinking.

EVOLVE: The Student Organization

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Imani Udoumana

Purpose: Evolve is a student organization that uses fashion, creativity, and self-expression as a platform to empower students and showcase their unique talents. The organization provides opportunities for personal growth, leadership development, community engagement, and artistic expression while fostering an inclusive environment where members can build confidence, develop skills, and celebrate individuality.

Feminist Union

Contact: Emily Freeman / Advisor: Michelle Merritt

Purpose: Feminist Union is an organization founded by women with the intent of making resources for equity, equality, sex education, women's reproductive systems, etc, readily available to Arkansas States student, and faculty body. We are an open minded, inclusive club which provides a safe space for those who believe in advocating for a cause.

Honors College Association

Contact: Katelin Kellar / Advisor: Madelyn Carson

Purpose: The Honors College Association (HCA) is the student organization which brings Honors students together for trips, social engagement, and community service events, as well as service-learning opportunities.

Linking Outreach to Ongoing Practices

Contact: Macey Powell / Advisor: Dr. Tameka Bailey

Purpose: LOOP is a service organization that brings students together to crochet and knit handmade baby items for donation to the St. Bernards NICU while promoting community service, compassion, and professional growth in healthcare.

National Society of Black Engineers

Contact: Colton Nicks / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: To increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community.To increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community.

National Society of Leadership and Success

Contact: Ashley Gibson / Advisor: Tawnya Waymack

Purpose: Direct students to be effective leaders

Pakistan Student Association

Contact: Danish Yaqub / Advisor: Mam Erica

Purpose: The Pakistan Student Association (PSA) at Arkansas State University promotes Pakistani culture, community, and student engagement by bringing students together through cultural events, social activities, educational programs, and opportunities for cultural exchange. PSA aims to support Pakistani students while fostering diversity, inclusion, and cross-cultural understanding across the A-State community.

Pre-SOMA Club

Contact: Skylar Orr / Advisor: Dr. Lorin Neuman-Lee & Ms. Jennifer Wharton

Purpose: Pre-Soma Club aims educate pre-medical students about the principles and practices of osteopathic medicine. More importantly, we promote a learning environment and supportive community for students on their path to medical school.

Red Wolf Radio

Contact: David Carey / Advisor: Galen Perkins

Purpose: Red Wolf Radio is a student-run radio station. It serves as an organization dedicated to giving students access and practice to a radio experience which allows them to create projects that could represent them in the future. Red Wolf Radio premieres a variety of music and any student-made radio shows, podcasts, and more.

Red Wolves for Safe Bites

Contact: Reese Worthington / Advisor: Sheena Gammon

Purpose: Red Wolves for Safe Bites promotes food allergy awareness, education, advocacy, and inclusion by providing resources, hosting educational events, and fostering safer, more accessible campus and community environments for individuals living with food allergies.

Red Wolves for St. Jude

Contact: Sarah Rodriguez / Advisor: Amber Yates

Purpose: RWFSJ is a non-profit organization that fundraises for St. Jude Research Hospital. We put on events and reach out to businesses that would like to help us with the St.Jude mission. We have ambassadors that assist us with events and sponsorship asks. All the money we raise goes straight to St.Jude Research Hospital.

Scarlett Reign

Contact: Jali White / Advisor: Zhedrick Jackson

Purpose: The ASU Stomp N Shake Team aims to promote school pride, uplift cheer culture, and foster a strong, supportive team environment. They perform at campus events, games, and showcases, creating confident and dynamic leaders, encourages creative expression and unity while promoting school spirit, pride, and inclusivity. The goal is to uplift the community, empower their members, and expand the definition of being an Astate Red-Wolf.

Sister2Sister

Contact: Kysia Montgomery / Advisor: Lorin Neuman-Lee

Purpose: Sister 2 Sister is a supportive, empowering community for African American women at A-State, focused on academic success, personal growth, and service. Since 2005, the program has grown from a small group to a thriving network of students and mentors who create space for authentic connection, leadership development, and meaningful involvement on campus. Through study halls, financial literacy workshops, service projects, and engagement events, S2S helps members build confidence, find their voice, and stay on track to graduate. It's a place where you can grow, be supported, and make a lasting impact—together

Special Olympics College

Contact: Laney Stone / Advisor: Dr. Valarie Hilson

Purpose: The purpose of A-State's Special Olympics College Registered Student Organization (RSO) is to promote inclusion, acceptance, and empowerment of individuals with intellectual disabilities through sports, volunteerism, and community engagement. The organization provides students with opportunities to support Special Olympics athletes, participate in inclusive sports activities, develop leadership skills, and advocate for individuals with intellectual disabilities.

St. John Newman University Parish

Contact: Dalton Rudick / Advisor: Penny Toombs

Purpose: SWO is a student-led organization dedicated to community support.

Student Development & Recruitment Team

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Dr. Carlitta Moore

Purpose: The Student Development and Recruitment Team (SDRT) is dedicated to recruiting and welcoming prospective students to Arkansas State University while fostering leadership, personal growth, and campus involvement among current students. Through mentorship, outreach initiatives, and engaging programs such as INSPIRE, SDRT helps students build meaningful connections, access campus resources, and create a positive and inclusive university experience.

The Legacy Project at Arkansas State University

Contact: Jasmine Reyes / Advisor: Sara Smith

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to build meaningful intergenerational connections by pairing Arkansas State University students with older adults in local care facilities. In particular, the organization will focus on recruiting A-State students to collaborate with residents of St. Bernards Village, conducting interviews and writing workshops to capture, preserve, and celebrate the life stories and legacies of senior community members.

Turning Point USA

Contact: Callie Caldwell / Advisor: Galen Perkins

Purpose: Turning Point USA, mission is to identify, educate, train, and organize students to promote the principles of fiscal responsibility, free markets, and limited government. The organization focuses on educating and empowering students to become active leaders in their communities.

Special Interest Organizations

A-State Book Club

Contact: Mia Huch / Advisor: Gwennette Confer

Purpose: Our book club exists to bring people together through the shared experience of reading. We aim to create a welcoming space where members can discover new perspectives, engage in thoughtful discussion, and connect with one another through meaningful stories and ideas. By reading a variety of books and sharing our experiences, we hope to encourage curiosity, conversation, and a lifelong appreciation for literature.

A-State FFA Alumni Association

Contact: Shaylee Smith / Advisor: Dr. Nina Crutchfield

Purpose: Within the FFA Alumni Association, we strive to share our passion for agriculture and a desire to lead the way for younger generations who thrive within the agricultural community. This organization offers recruitment skills, professional development, and event organization, all while working within the realms of agriculture.

A-State Jiu Jitsu Club

Contact: Tarin Preston / Advisor: Trey Hicks

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Jiu-Jitsu Club seeks to establish itself as a respected, sustainable, and high-impact program within the A-State community. Our goal is to build a balanced organization that supports both competitive success and campus-wide engagement through martial arts.

A-State Magic: The Gathering Club

Contact: Dakota Kain / Advisor: Mitchell Clay

Purpose: To hold meetings once a week with fellow A-State students for the purpose of playing MTG and to encourage a sense of community. To be accepting of all MTG players and allowing others to express themselves in the game.

A-State Moot Court

Contact: John Thompson / Advisor: Hans Hacker

Purpose: The Moot Court Club provides students with hands-on experience in legal advocacy by simulating appellate court proceedings. Members develop skills in legal research, case analysis, brief writing, oral argument, public speaking, and critical thinking while preparing for and participating in moot court competitions.

A-State Pickleball Club

Contact: Haden Rabah / Advisor: Tyler Guthrie

Purpose: The purpose of the A-State Pickleball Club is to provide a fun, welcoming, and recreational environment for Arkansas State University students to enjoy the sport of pickleball. The club is open to players of all skill levels, from students who have never played before to experienced recreational players. The club will provide opportunities for members to play pickleball, meet other students, stay physically active, and build community through the sport.

A-State Photography Club

Contact: Rebecca Worthington / Advisor: Rachel Boillot

Purpose: The A-State Photography Club is a student organization for photographers of all experience levels and students of all majors to connect, create, and grow their skills. The club provides opportunities to share work, learn photography techniques, participate in photo walks and creative projects, and build a welcoming community centered around photography and the visual arts.

A-State Student Veterans Organization

Contact: Johnathon Mullins / Advisor: Jana Haskins

Purpose: The purpose of the A-State Student Veterans Organization is to assist veterans and their dependents in acclimating to collegiate life, provide information regarding services available to them on and off campus, provide support groups, promote awareness of veteran students to the campus community, and to promote community service opportunities.

A-State Wildlife & Fisheries Society

Contact: Evelyn Rogers / Advisor: Than Boves

Purpose: The Wildlife & Fisheries Society Club is a chapter of the Wildlife Society at Arkansas State University. The goals of the Wildlife Society are as follows: Facilitate communication between members of the society on this campus, other campuses and those already involved in the professional field of Wildlife and Fisheries. Work with the community and campus to spread conservation awareness and general knowledge of wildlife science. Expose students to the Wildlife and Fisheries science in lab and field settings by conducting research and offering hands-on experience that will prepare them for careers after college. Embrace, foster and promote a commitment to diversity, equity and inclusivity among members of the Working Group and the Society broadly. The A-State chapter strives to bring research, career, volunteer, and recreational opportunities to the students on and off campus.

American Society of Heating, Refrigerating, and Air-Conditioning

Contact: Noah Owens / Advisor: Dr. Kwangkook Jeong

Purpose: This organization is the student branch of ASHRAE. The goal of this club is to help engineering students get a job in the HVAC industry.

Andromeda Robotics

Contact: Aidan Harrington / Advisor: Dr. Joshua Vangilder

Purpose: We are a competitive collegiate robotics team that is designed to test students engineering, coding, and hand eye coordination skills in the form of competitions.

Arkansas State Esports

Contact: Noah Ergle / Advisor: Amy Hyman

Purpose: Our goals as a program are to compete and win at the highest level against other colleges nationwide, create a welcoming environment for students, and use our program to help students gain experience in the online space through live broadcasting and media production.

Arkansas State Pre-Professional Club

Contact: Walker Cannon / Advisor: Dr. Maureen Dolan

Purpose: The purpose of the Arkansas State Pre-Professional Club is to educate, support, and prepare students pursuing professional degrees in healthcare and related fields. The organization shall accomplish this purpose by: Hosting guest speakers from professional schools and healthcare professions; Providing information regarding professional school admissions and career preparation; Organizing community service and philanthropic activities; Promoting academic excellence, leadership, professionalism, and service among members.

Arkansas State Space Program

Contact: Josh Sutton / Advisor: Dr. Kwangkook Jeong

Purpose: The Arkansas State Space Program is dedicated to giving students the opportunity to explore an education in aerospace engineering in Arkansas. Our current goal is the design and development of a liquid propelled rocket engine.

Arkansas State University Trumpet Guild

Contact: Sarah Hanks / Advisor: Dr. Smioes

Purpose: The purpose of this organization is to promote the appreciation and understanding of music, with a focus on trumpet-related repertoire, performance, and education.

Arkansas State Young Democrats

Contact: Isabella Stanton / Advisor: Hans Hacker

Purpose: The Young Democrats is a student organization dedicated to promoting civic engagement, educating students about public policy and the Democratic Party, and developing future leaders. Through voter registration drives, community service, candidate events, volunteer opportunities, and discussions on current issues, members gain hands-on experience in politics while working to strengthen democratic participation on campus and in the community.

A-State Collegiate Cattleman's Association

Contact: Katie McClellend / Advisor: Hunter Burnett

Purpose: The purposes of this organization shall be: 1. To advance the economic, educational, political and social interests of the Arkansas cattle industry. 2. To support the policies and programs of the Arkansas Cattlemen's Association and to meet the needs of the local cattlemen through county programs and activities. 3. To promote, preserve, and protect the rights and businesses of individuals involved in the beef-producing industry. 4. To educate members and the public about current issues involved in the Arkansas cattle industry, specifically government affairs. 5. To promote the Arkansas cattle industry and opportunities available through the College of Agriculture to the Astate campus, in-state/out-of-state high schools and elementary schools, and the general public. 6. To assist members in developing professional relationships and contacts in the industry of Beef Production and other industries such as Agricultural Business, Agricultural Communications, Agricultural Education, Animal Science, Environmental Plant Science, GIS, Natural Resources, Plant Science, Veterinary Medicine, and Wildlife Conservation and Management. These activities will aid in furthering the members' education in agriculture and better preparing them for a career in this competitive industry.

A-State International Student Association

Contact: Jasmin Reyes / Advisor: Erica Jennings

Purpose: Purpose: Dedicated to promoting the well-being of international students by fostering an inclusive community where everyone feels welcome. We aim to bridge connections across the A-State campus while celebrating, educating, and preserving the rich cultural diversity that thrives under the shared roof we call home.

Avian Ecology Club

Contact: Ethan Saffle / Advisor: Than Boves

Purpose: The Avian Ecology Club aims to teach students and the community about birds through hands-on research experience and public outreach. We welcome students to get involved with our current projects and become familiar with avian research techniques.

Center for Leadership Excellence

Contact: Muskan Gaha / Advisor: Gwennette Confer

Purpose: The Center for Leadership Excellence (CLE) is committed to cultivating confident and capable students setting and achieving high goals on their paths to college and careers. A-State CLE students complete our Step Up, Reach Back program by participating in mentoring, career preparation, and conference events, leading service projects to benefit the community, and applying for scholarship opportunities.

Creative Writing Club

Contact: Tanner Kenley / Advisor: Andrew Gadberry

Purpose: The CWC hosts writers and creatives from all genres, styles and backgrounds for monthly workshops and discussion roundtables

Delta Sigma Omicron

Contact: Isabella Kuhn / Advisor: Dr. Dominique White

Purpose: Delta Sigma Omicron at Arkansas State University exists to foster understanding, awareness, and access for students with disabilities and supporters, while also promoting disability education, leadership development, community engagement, and belonging.

Equine Club

Contact: Abigail Lillard / Advisor: Cassie Burdett

Purpose: The purpose of Arkansas State University Equine Club is to enrich the lives of the members by involving them in the equine field. All majors welcome. The club helps members to become more knowledgeable about equine and the industry, to use this knowledge to their advantage.

Feminist Union

Contact: Emily Freeman / Advisor: Michelle Merritt

Purpose: Feminist Union is an organization founded by women with the intent of making resources for equity, equality, sex education, women's reproductive systems, etc, readily available to Arkansas States student, and faculty body. We are an open minded, inclusive club which provides a safe space for those who believe in advocating for a cause.

Game Design Club

Contact: Jamie Stacy / Advisor: Sidharth Chandran

Purpose: The primary objective of the Arkansas State Game Design Club is to bring students together over one singular interest in creating entertainment through video/tabletop gaming. As this club is still new, we are still in the process of developing resources for students to use. This club serves as a great place to find new friends and develop new skills.

Gender and Sexuality Alliance

Contact: Jesalynn Talavera / Advisor: Devon Coble

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to: Create a safe and affirming environment for queer identifying individuals at Arkansas State University. This includes, but is not limited to, people who identify as: Transgender, Gay, Lesbian, Nonbinary, Gender Non-Conforming, Bisexual, Pansexual, Asexual, Aromantic, etc.

Graphic Design Club

Contact: Teagan Weaver / Advisor: Leslie Parker

Purpose: Our goal is to provide fun socials, graphic design experience, and volunteer experience for students through our workshops, club activities, and off-campus events!

Honors College Association

Contact: Katelin Kellar / Advisor: Madelyn Carson

Purpose: The Honors College Association (HCA) is the student organization which brings Honors students together for trips, social engagement, and community service events, as well as service-learning opportunities.

Indian Student Organization

Contact: Rajesh Mannem / Advisor: Pradeep Mishra

Purpose: The Indian Student Organization celebrates and promotes Indian culture, traditions, and heritage across campus by fostering cultural awareness, inclusivity, and community through events and activities open to all students.

Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers

Contact: James England / Advisor: Joshua Vangilder

Purpose: IEEE core purpose is to foster technological innovation and excellence for the benefit of humanity.

Linking Outreach to Ongoing Practices

Contact: Macey Powell / Advisor: Dr. Tameka Bailey

Purpose: LOOP is a service organization that brings students together to crochet and knit handmade baby items for donation to the St. Bernards NICU while promoting community service, compassion, and professional growth in healthcare.

National Society of Black Engineers

Contact: Colton Nicks / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: To increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community.To increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community.

National Society of Leadership and Success

Contact: Ashley Gibson / Advisor: Tawnya Waymack

Purpose: Direct students to be effective leaders

Nepalese Student Association

Contact: Newtion Rai / Advisor: Sanjeev Acharya

Purpose: The Nepalese Student Association promotes Nepali culture, traditions, and community at Arkansas State University by connecting students, celebrating cultural events, supporting international and Nepali students, and fostering friendship and inclusion among the university community.

Red Wolves For Red Wolves

Contact: Joe House / Advisor: Chris Thigpen

Purpose: To conserve and protect the endangered American Red Wolf through outreach, curation and scholarly research.

Scarlett Reign

Contact: Jali White / Advisor: Zhedrick Jackson

Purpose: The ASU Stomp N Shake Team aims to promote school pride, uplift cheer culture, and foster a strong, supportive team environment. They perform at campus events, games, and showcases, creating confident and dynamic leaders, encourages creative expression and unity while promoting school spirit, pride, and inclusivity. The goal is to uplift the community, empower their members, and expand the definition of being an Astate Red-Wolf.

Sister2Sister

Contact: Kysia Montgomery / Advisor: Lorin Neuman-Lee

Purpose: Sister 2 Sister is a supportive, empowering community for African American women at A-State, focused on academic success, personal growth, and service. Since 2005, the program has grown from a small group to a thriving network of students and mentors who create space for authentic connection, leadership development, and meaningful involvement on campus. Through study halls, financial literacy workshops, service projects, and engagement events, S2S helps members build confidence, find their voice, and stay on track to graduate. It's a place where you can grow, be supported, and make a lasting impact—together

Student Activities Board

Contact: Emma Dorton / Advisor: Micayla McGowen

Purpose: Student Activities Board (SAB) is responsible for providing programs and leadership opportunities that expand your college experience outside of the classroom. Furthermore, SAB is responsible for creating a campus climate and culture that fosters social, cultural, recreational, and educational development of the students, faculty, and staff of Arkansas State University.

Student Art Union

Contact: Wesley D Thompson / Advisor: Lydia Dildilian

Purpose: Student Art Union is an active student organization at Arkansas State University (A-State). We are a community of involved artists, makers, and designers looking to make a difference within our school and local community, where creativity is freely shared, and innovation takes place. Members are active advocates who volunteer their time to reach out and share the importance of art and culture in the community through art events. We share ideas and experiences freely, introducing new perspectives to help influence change in our community, each other‚Äôs work, and enrich our knowledge in the arts.

Students For Life

Contact: Savannah Scott / Advisor: Dr. Julie Huggins

Purpose: Support and service for women with unplanned pregnancies and educate on equal rights for people of all ages.

Talking Wolves Podcast

Contact: Jeremy McHalffey / Advisor: Amber Yates

Purpose: Talking Wolves Podcast exists to create a student-led platform that informs, connects, and inspires the Arkansas State University community through respectful conversations, meaningful storytelling, leadership development, and professional media experiences

The Caribbean Student Association

Contact: Tanelle Charlton / Advisor: Dr. H. Steve Leslie

Purpose: The purpose of the Caribbean Student Association is to celebrate and promote Caribbean culture, build a supportive community for Caribbean and non-Caribbean students, encourage cultural awareness and inclusion, provide opportunities for leadership and service, and strengthen the campus through educational, social, and community engagement programs.

The Cosmetology Lab Association

Contact: Kamaria Graham / Advisor: Gregory Hawkins

Purpose: Our goal is to create a space on campus that focuses on Black hair education, beauty, hairstyling, and cosmetology, because we noticed there isn‚Äôt currently an organization that specifically caters to us for that need. We want to provide hands-on learning, workshops, networking, and opportunities for students to grow their skills. We‚Äôre looking for an advisor who can help guide us, support our vision, and help us build the organization successfully.

The Creative Collective

Contact: Kadence Kimbrough / Advisor: Dr. Latika Johnson

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to showcase creativity through the efforts of collaborative performance. We bridge the gap between fine arts (e.g., music, dance, song, spoken word) to create captivating experiences to serve our community and transformative experiences that enrich our community and empower the next generation of creative leaders at Arkansas State University.¬†

The Garden Gnomes

Contact: Collin Galloway / Advisor: Soraya Byrdsong

Purpose: Help students develop gardening/horticultural skills and knowledge, while also revamping and maintaining the lab science greenhouse. Which includes, but is not limited to, beautification of the greenhouse exterior and adding educational signs in our garden beds for passing people to read. It will also be a way for students to socialize with other like-minded students

The Herald Student Newspaper

Contact: Allie Carson / Advisor: Polly Marshall

Purpose: The Herald Student Newspaper is the completely student run newspaper on A-State's campus. Serving the campus community since 1921, The Herald has written news, sports, opinion, arts & entertainment and everything in between. It's the campus news source that publishes most Wednesdays where school is in session.

The Order of The Slide

Contact: Faith Carson / Advisor: Dr. Lucas Kaspar

Purpose: "The Order of the Slide" exists to create community and to foster education through trombone in NEA. We accomplish this through fundraising and community engagement to bridge the gap between collegiate trombonists and community members who play the instrument. This could be students in high school, amateur players seeking community through trombone, or retired pros. "The Order of the Slide" also hopes to provide members with opportunities to participate performance experience through charity performances. We also sponsor fundraisers which directly serve to benefit the students of A-State Trombone Studio. With such funds, A-State is also able to provide learning experiences for all students in the music department with lectures and recitals presented by professional players.

Turning Point USA

Contact: Callie Caldwell / Advisor: Galen Perkins

Purpose: Turning Point USA, mission is to identify, educate, train, and organize students to promote the principles of fiscal responsibility, free markets, and limited government.

The organization focuses on educating and empowering students to become active leaders in their communities.

Veritas Society

Contact: Raquel Vargas / Advisor: Mark Lewis

Purpose: The Veritas Society is an organization that is designed to provide information and knowledge regarding legal issues for all students that are interested in an legal career or simply interested in the law. The organization is based in the Neil Griffin College of Business and focuses on legal issues involving business, but students of all disciplines are welcomed. The Neil Griffin College of Business currently has five licensed attorneys as faculty and/or administrators; that in addition have had legal practiced experience.

Wolf Pack

Contact: Harrison Herget / Advisor: Mary Melton

Purpose: The Wolf Pack is a student-led spirit organization dedicated to uniting the campus community and elevating the game-day experience at Arkansas State University athletic events. Our mission is to create an energetic, supportive, and inclusive student section that drives school spirit, boosts team morale, and builds lasting traditions. Through organized chants, coordinated themes, and a strong sense of pride, the Wolf Pack aims to make every sporting event a memorable and exciting experience for students, athletes, and fans alike.

Music + Art Organizations

A-State Clay Collective

Contact: Christopher Pham / Advisor: Zach Tate

Purpose: The A-State Clay Club provides a space for students and faculty to learn and develop their ceramic skills

A-State Flute Club

Contact: Jacob Joseph Vickery / Advisor: Stephanie Hoeckley

Purpose: Our mission is to provide educational and performance opportunities to flutists at Arkansas State University and host fun social events to connect everyone on campus who enjoys playing the flute. We also seek to raise funds for exciting guest artist visits and spark enthusiasm for the flute in the local community through student performances. All flutists at A-State of any age and level are welcome!

A-State Photography Club

Contact: Rebecca Worthington / Advisor: Rachel Boillot

Purpose: The A-State Photography Club is a student organization for photographers of all experience levels and students of all majors to connect, create, and grow their skills. The club provides opportunities to share work, learn photography techniques, participate in photo walks and creative projects, and build a welcoming community centered around photography and the visual arts.

Alpha Psi Omega

Contact: Joanna Crites / Advisor: Claire Abernathy

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to: To acknowledge those demonstrating a high standard of accomplishment in theatre, and to support the arts in Arkansas State University's campus and communities.

Arkansas State University Trumpet Guild

Contact: Sarah Hanks / Advisor: Dr. Smioes

Purpose: The purpose of this organization is to promote the appreciation and understanding of music, with a focus on trumpet-related repertoire, performance, and education.

Astate Double Reed Society

Contact: Nikki Newell / Advisor: Kristin Leitterman

Purpose: The name of the student organization shall be the A-State Double Reed Society. The mission of the organization (hereafter referred to as "the ADRS") shall be: To provide educational and performance opportunities to double reed enthusiasts at Arkansas State University To raise money and provide funding to host events and offset costs of extracurricular music experiences for members To spark enthusiasm for double reed instruments in the local community through student performance opportunities.

Black Student Association

Contact: Janarie Prince / Advisor: Ian Buchanan

Purpose: To promote university spirit, academic achievement, and cultural enrichment.

Clarinet Society

Contact: Heather Scudder / Advisor: Erin Cameron

Purpose: The Clarinet Society brings together clarinetists and bass clarinetists from across the university, including both music majors and non-music majors. We aim to enrich and promote clarinet playing across the university, and in northeast Arkansas through community performances, guest artists, private clarinet lessons, and social events.

Creative Writing Club

Contact: Tanner Kenley / Advisor: Andrew Gadberry

Purpose: The CWC hosts writers and creatives from all genres, styles and backgrounds for monthly workshops and discussion roundtables

EVOLVE: The Student Organization

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Imani Udoumana

Purpose: Evolve is a student organization that uses fashion, creativity, and self-expression as a platform to empower students and showcase their unique talents. The organization provides opportunities for personal growth, leadership development, community engagement, and artistic expression while fostering an inclusive environment where members can build confidence, develop skills, and celebrate individuality.

Funtime Channel Performing Arts

Contact: Ronnie Tindel / Advisor: Tara Banks

Purpose: This group is filled with people who want to or is learning clorguard. We as a team go out and perform and practice 1 day a week from 7PM-10 PM every Wednesday. Our intentions are to learn a group show, allow members to learn how to create a solo or duet, allow members to perform, allow members to grow academically in colorguard and music and understand counts.

Graphic Design Club

Contact: Teagan Weaver / Advisor: Leslie Parker

Purpose: Our goal is to provide fun socials, graphic design experience, and volunteer experience for students through our workshops, club activities, and off-campus events!

Natural State Saxophone Club

Contact: Rylan Kincannon / Advisor: Dr. Elissa Kana

Purpose: The Natural State Saxophone Club provides saxophone enthusiasts at A-State the opportunity to engage with the instrument in performance, attendance at concerts and conferences, and a variety of educational initiatives. To this end, the NSSC strives to raise funds to support the group's and its members' saxophone endeavors.

Pakistan Social Association

Contact: Danish Yaqub / Advisor: Erica Jennings

Purpose: The Pakistan Student Association (PSA) at Arkansas State University promotes Pakistani culture, community, and student engagement by bringing students together through cultural events, social activities, educational programs, and opportunities for cultural exchange. PSA aims to support Pakistani students while fostering diversity, inclusion, and cross-cultural understanding across the A-State community.

Percussive Arts Council

Contact: Jade Cottingham / Advisor: Brian Graiser

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to foster love for the percussive arts, support opportunities for club members to pursue enrichment related to the percussive arts, such as attending professional conferences and performances, hosting guest artists on campus, and acquiring relevant materials for use by the club and the university percussion program, and advocate for all percussionists and percussion activities.

Red Wolf Radio

Contact: David Carey / Advisor: Galen Perkins

Purpose: Red Wolf Radio is a student-run radio station. It serves as an organization dedicated to giving students access and practice to a radio experience which allows them to create projects that they could represent them in the future. Red Wolf Radio premieres a variety of music and any student-made radio shows, podcasts, and more.

Scarlett Reign

Contact: Jali White / Advisor: Zhedrick Jackson

Purpose: The ASU Stomp N Shake Team aims to promote school pride, uplift cheer culture, and foster a strong, supportive team environment. They perform at campus events, games, and showcases, creating confident and dynamic leaders, encourages creative expression and unity while promoting school spirit, pride, and inclusivity. The goal is to uplift the community, empower their members, and expand the definition of being an Astate Red-Wolf.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Contact: Ella Murray / Advisor: Kristin Leitterman

Purpose: To encourage, nurture, and support the art of music.

Student Art Union

Contact: Wesley D Thompson / Advisor: Lydia Dildilian

Purpose: Student Art Union is an active student organization at Arkansas State University (A-State). We are a community of involved artists, makers, and designers looking to make a difference within our school and local community, where creativity is freely shared, and innovation takes place. Members are active advocates who volunteer their time to reach out and share the importance of art and culture in the community through art events. We share ideas and experiences freely, introducing new perspectives to help influence change in our community, each other,Äôs work, and enrich our knowledge in the arts.

The Cosmetology Lab Association

Contact: Kamaria Graham / Advisor: Gregory Hawkins

Purpose: Our goal is to create a space on campus that focuses on Black hair education, beauty, hairstyling, and cosmetology, because we noticed there isn,Äôt currently an organization that specifically caters to us for that need. We want to provide hands-on learning, workshops, networking, and opportunities for students to grow their skills. We,Äôre looking for an advisor who can help guide us, support our vision, and help us build the organization successfully.

The Creative Collective

Contact: Kadence Kimbrough / Advisor: Dr. Latika Johnson

Purpose: The purpose of this organization shall be to showcase creativity through the efforts of collaborative performance. We bridge the gap between fine arts (e.g., music, dance, song, spoken word) to create captivating experiences to serve our community and transformative experiences that enrich our community and empower the next generation of creative leaders at Arkansas State University.¬†

The Order of the Slide

Contact: Faith Carson / Advisor: Dr. Lucas Kaspar

Purpose: "The Order of the Slide" exists to create community and to foster education through trombone in NEA. We accomplish this through fundraising and community engagement to bridge the gap between collegiate trombonists and community members who play the instrument. This could be students in high school, amateur players seeking community through trombone, or retired pros. "The Order of the Slide" also hopes to provide members with opportunities to participate performance experience through charity performances. We also sponsor fundraisers which directly serve to benefit the students of A-State Trombone Studio. With such funds, A-State is also able to provide learning experiences for all students in the music department with lectures and recitals presented by professional players.

United Voices

Contact: Eddie La'RAy Watson / Advisor: Dr. Marques J. Ruff

Purpose: United Voices exists to celebrate, preserve, and share the rich tradition of gospel music through authentic performance, meaningful community, and transformative spiritual experiences.

Recreational Organizations

A-State Jiu Jitsu Club

Contact: Tarin Preston / Advisor: Trey Hicks

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Jiu-Jitsu Club seeks to establish itself as a respected, sustainable, and high-impact program within the A-State community. Our goal is to build a balanced organization that supports both competitive success and campus-wide engagement through martial arts.

A-State Pickleball Club

Contact: Haden Rabah / Advisor: Tyler Guthrie

Purpose: The purpose of the A-State Pickleball Club is to provide a fun, welcoming, and recreational environment for Arkansas State University students to enjoy the sport of pickleball. The club is open to players of all skill levels, from students who have never played before to experienced recreational players. The club will provide opportunities for members to play pickleball, meet other students, stay physically active, and build community through the sport.

Arkansas State University Shooting Sports Club

Contact: Hunter Walpole / Advisor: Jason Stewart

Purpose: A-State Shooting Sports is a club that brings together A-State Students that are passionate about clay shooting sports. Members will experience the sport of clay shooting as well as the wellness and social benefits that these sports provide. Members can elect to participate recreationally or competitively depending on the members interests. The club is co-ed and is inviting to all skill levels, from beginners to skilled target shooters.

Men's Soccer Club

Contact: Boaz Muteba / Advisor: Randy Nelson

Purpose: It is a soccer club

Red Wolves Cricket Club

Contact: Aditya Kumar / Advisor: Pradeep Mishra

Purpose: To promote the sport of cricket at Arkansas State University. To get local community familiar with the sport. Cricket is the second most popular sport in the world.

Scarlet Chess Club

Contact: Sachleen Singh / Advisor: Dr. Gregory Hansen

Purpose: We are a place for A-state students to come and enjoy playing chess.

Ultimate Frisbee Club

Contact: Samuel Krallman / Advisor: Kyle Walker

Purpose: The Ultimate Frisbee aims to increase awareness and participation in our sport, and instill physical, social, and leadership skills into those involved with our community!

University Department Organizations

A-State Model United Nations

Contact: Edward Jackson / Advisor: Dr. Cameron Wimpy

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Model United Nations Organization, composed of undergraduate and graduate students, has been active on campus for over 30 years. Members debate, compete, and represent our university as delegates of member-nations in various Model United Nations competitions throughout the year.

A-State Moot Court

Contact: John Thompson / Advisor: Hans Hacker

Purpose: The Moot Court Club provides students with hands-on experience in legal advocacy by simulating appellate court proceedings. Members develop skills in legal research, case analysis, brief writing, oral argument, public speaking, and critical thinking while preparing for and participating in moot court competitions.

A-State Student Philanthropy Council

Contact: Grace Winter / Advisor: Tristan Dowler

Purpose: The Arkansas State University Student Philanthropy Council (SPC) is a student-led organization dedicated to fostering a culture of pride, tradition, and generosity across campus. Guided by its mission to instill a strong sense of spirit and giving, SPC engages students in philanthropy by raising awareness about the impact of charitable support and encouraging active participation in advancing A-State. Through programming, events, and outreach, SPC helps students understand the importance of giving back and building a lasting legacy for future Red Wolves.

American Chemical Society

Contact: Sable Crafton / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: The purpose of organization is to bring people together with the love of chemistry.

Creative Writing Club

Contact: Tanner Kenley / Advisor: Andrew Gadberry

Purpose: The CWC hosts writers and creatives from all genres, styles and backgrounds for monthly workshops and discussion roundtables

Game Design Club

Contact: Jamie Stacy / Advisor: Sidharth Chandran

Purpose: The primary objective of the Arkansas State Game Design Club is to bring students together over one singular interest in creating entertainment through video/tabletop gaming. As this club is still new, we are still in the process of developing resources for students to use. This club serves as a great place to find new friends and develop new skills.

Graduate Student Council

Contact: Shahjahan Jabbar Memon / Advisor: Dr. Brad Rawlins

Purpose: The GSC is the voice of A-State graduate students. As an organization, the GSC acts as a liaison between students and the administration, ensuring that student concerns are heard, information is distributed, and student success is promoted. The Graduate Student Council works to fulfill A-State's goal of becoming a national research university. The GSC has the opportunity and obligation to support both academic and professional growth; they are positioned to support and enable collaborative efforts and enrichment opportunities. GSC work alongside the graduate school. Mission: Represent the graduate student body, support academic and professional goals, and foster campus engagement.

Kinesiology Majors Club

Contact: Eli Whitmire / Advisor: Dr. Valarie Hilson

Purpose: The Kinesiology Majors Club connects students in Exercise Science, Physical Education, and Sport Management through networking, service, and professional development. Our mission is to build leadership skills, foster community engagement, and prepare future educators and industry professionals for successful careers in health, fitness, and sport industries.

National Society of Black Engineers

Contact: Colton Nicks / Advisor: Hashim Ali

Purpose: To increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community.

Red Wolf Radio

Contact: David Carey / Advisor: Galen Perkins

Purpose: Red Wolf Radio is a student-run radio station. It serves as an organization dedicated to giving students access and practice to a radio experience which allows them to create projects that they could represent them in the future. Red Wolf Radio premieres a variety of music and any student-made radio shows, podcasts, and more.

Student Development & Recruitment Team

Contact: Elchristma Deveaux / Advisor: Dr. Carlitta Moore

Purpose: The Student Development and Recruitment Team (SDRT) is dedicated to recruiting and welcoming prospective students to Arkansas State University while fostering leadership, personal growth, and campus involvement among current students. Through mentorship, outreach initiatives, and engaging programs such as INSPIRE, SDRT helps students build meaningful connections, access campus resources, and create a positive and inclusive university experience.

Student Government Association

Contact: Kate Malone / Advisor: Amber Yates

Purpose: The Student Government Association is committed to providing support, fellowship, and advocacy for the students of Arkansas State University. As the designated representative voice for the students, SGA strives to promote a greater understanding and cooperation with the faculty and administration. SGA works to ensure that the students realize their rights to influence academic policies on the university's campus.

Volunteer A-State

Contact: Jaycee Davis / Advisor: Amber Yates

Purpose: The Volunteer A-State Council works to increase awareness and student engagement in regards to volunteer opportunities in the community and region. Volunteer A-State provides the campus community a place to serve, learn, and make a statement by promoting and coordinating volunteer opportunities and building relationships within the community. Volunteer A-State runs and maintains the on-campus food pantry. The A-State Food Pantry serves A-State faculty, staff or students with a valid A-State ID. There are no income requirements.