

View in browser

College of Sciences & Mathematics Newsletter
January 2020

Weiler Woods Scholarship to Benefit Conservation Students

Because of their ongoing commitment to wildlife conservation, Dale Weiler and Loti Woods of Tryon, N.C., have presented a gift of $25,000 for student scholarships at Arkansas State University. Their endowment contribution is establishing the Weiler Woods Red Wolf Conservation Scholarship, for which A-State students majoring in biological sciences, environmental sciences, or wildlife, fisheries and conservation will be eligible to apply.

CoSM Faculty Spotlight

Podcast Features Sikkel

Episode 68 of the Create@State podcast features Dr. Paul Sikkel, associate professor of marine biology. In the podcast, Sikkel talks about his research involving parasites and the world's oceans.

CoSM Student Spotlight

Carter Selected for Gilman Scholarship

Arkansas State University student Bailee Carter of Mountain Home is the newest recipient of the prestigious Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship. The Gilman Scholarship provides funding to students who wish to study or intern abroad. Carter, a junior biology major with an emphasis in zoology and a minor in animal science, will study in Koh Tao and Chiang Mai, Thailand, in May through June, 2020.

CoSM Faculty Spotlight Neuman-Lee Article Examines Snake Stress

A research article by Dr. Lori Neuman-Lee, assistant professor of herpetology, has been accepted by the Journal for Experimental Biology. Researchers used field hormone manipulation studies to look at how snakes increase their blood sugar in a stressful event.

ARKANSAS STATE
ALUMNI
ASSOCIATION
ESTD 1924

Contact Us

A-State Alumni Association

Cooper Alumni Center
2600 Alumni Blvd.

P.O. Box 1990
State University, AR 72467

Phone: (870) 972-2586
Toll-Free: (888) 225-8343
alumni@AState.edu

